Media Knowledge And Power:

Media, Knowledge and Power Oliver Boyd-Barrett, Peter Braham, 2013-12-16 First Published in 1986 The readings reflect the current interest in the possible effects that such communications media may have upon children's studies and cognition and upon how children are likely to respond to education and educational media

Media Knowledge James Schwoch, Mimi White, Miriam White, Susan Reilly, 1992-01-01 This book calls for a way of reading and responding to the media culture that is more than passive reception It argues for the fostering of critical citizenship as the key to engaging debating and ultimately reconstructing the concepts and beliefs society brings to bear upon popular culture The authors analyze contemporary media culture including television news and dramatic programming advertising Hollywood film and discuss the relationships between technology culture and society

Knowledge and Power in the Global Economy David Gabbard, 2000 Illuminates how the meaning of language used to discuss the role reform of US public schools reflects an essentially economic view of the world and offers a set of alternative concepts meanings for reformulating the role of US public schools

Knowledge & Power in the Global Economy David Gabbard, 2008 The second edition of Knowledge and Power in the Global Economy examines how neoliberal and neoconservative policies are working in tandem to privatize and commercialize public schools It looks at how these policies and the agendas behind them have impacted the internal dynamics of school management teaching and learning as well as how they have transformed the external dynamics of education from a public good or service offered to serve public interests to a private enterprise primarily serving private interests In addition to information critique and analysis multiple perspectives are provided that readers can draw upon to formulate an alternative vision of education as a crucial element of social change along democratic and egalitarian lines The first edition of this volume provided a critical encyclopedic approach to the rhetoric of educational reform as it developed from the 1980s through the 1990s critiquing its vocabulary elaborating the multiplicity of ways that the logic of neoliberalism and the emerging patterns of high stakes testing and accountability were impacting the curriculum and introducing ideas associated with alternative and liberatory educational projects Since its publication in 2000 policy developments such as the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 in the U S and others in the U K and other parts of the world have nationalized and intensified these patterns deepening the logic and extent of neoliberalism's hold over educational reforms At the same time it is impossible to understand the current crises in education solely in terms of neoliberalism the impact of neoconservatism must also be considered Hence this second edition has a new subtitle The Effects of School Reform in a Neoliberal Neoconservative Age This edition is structured around five themes Political and Social Foundations Anti Educational Foundations The Set Up Anti Educational Foundations The Trap Classroom Consequence Democracy's Path This volume will particularly interest scholars and professionals across the fields of educational foundations curriculum theory and educational policy and is well suited as a text for courses in these areas

A Treatise on the Modern Law of Evidence:

Media of proof Charles Frederic Chamberlayne, 1916 Media Power; who is Shaping Your Picture of the World? Robert Stein, 1972 The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog, Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1910 Introducing Media Studies Ziauddin Sardar, Borin Van Loon, 2006 Media studies The Media Revolution in America and in Western Europe Everett M. Rogers, Francis Balle, 1985 This step is a step toward greater internationalization of mass communication research Existing differences between the mass media of North American and Western European countries provide a basis for comparative analyses that illustrate how differences in national mass media systems can contribute towards intellectual understanding of communication behavior The world of communication scholarship can be divided into two main schools the empirical school and the critical school This volume represents some of the leading scholars of each school and is dedicated to the intellectual merging of the schools by means of fostering an improved understanding of each other Knowledge is Power, 1992 Power and Television in Latin America Antonio V. Menendez-Alarcon, 1992-12-04 This volume examines the relationship between the development and functioning of television and concrete political and economic processes in the third world Antonio Menendez Alarcon focuses on the Dominican Republic where television was introduced by a dictator Trujillo as a form of political power and where the old dictatorial forms have permeated the newer supposedly democratic media The author looks at the relationship between television network organization and control and programming the industry's long range effects on culture and development and the extent to which television contributes to the free marketplace of ideas The methodology encompasses a set of techniques including field research in the political democracy of the Dominican Republic in depth interviews and non participant observation content analysis and document analysis The results of the author's study reveal that even though some dissent is tolerated the overall message diffused in Dominican television corresponds to the basic elements and interests of a business oriented society hence the widely accepted assumption of the right to hear different opinions is subverted by the commercial role of television According to the author television portrayals of elections constitute dramatized rituals of democracy that legitimize the myth of political equality and collective self determination while leading citizens to apathy and political resignation Power and Television in Latin America should be read by all students and scholars interested in critical theory of mass media production of culture and sociology of Latin America The Cumulative Book Index, 1989 A world list of books in the English language Media, Monarchy and Power Neil Blain, Hugh O'Donnell, 2003 Historically underpinned this study focuses especially on the period from the 1980s onward and looking forward into the new century The authors begin their analysis with the phenomenon of the British Royal Family and their relationship with contemporary Britain through the media This then extends into a comparative analysis of monarchy across Europe in its relation to political culture including the republican tradition The book also uses the concept of pararoyals such as the Perons Kennedys Clintons and now in Britain the Blairs It analyzes the nature of republican symbology as incorporated in media rituals and representations to try to define key differences within the category of the modern in contemporary Europe Media Power Politics David L. Paletz, Robert M. Entman, 1981

Madness, Power and the Media Stephen Harper, 2009-07-30 This book is an examination of the language and images used to depict mental distress in contemporary popular culture including analysis of news media magazines television and film

New Media N. C. Lesame, 2005 In this publication the contributors share their knowledge of and expertise in the Information and Communication Technology ICT sector to provide the reader with information on the latest developments in this field especially in selected African countries Chambers's Encyclopedia A dictionary of universal knowledge

, 1891 Culture and Power J. Rubén Valdés Miyares, Carla Rodríguez González, 2008 This is a collection of essays on the configuration of history as text including the visual with a particular focus on the performance of historical plots Contributors include distinguished scholars from all around the world in all walks of academic life United States Media

Representational Practices and Anthropogenic Climate Change Maxwell T. Boykoff, 2006 Inventing Knowledge Nick Taylor, 1993 Focuses on curriculum change in South Africa
