Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious

Tremendous Trifles G. K. Chesterton, 1920 These fleeting sketches are all republished by kind permission of the Editor of the DAILY NEWS in which paper they appeared They amount to no more than a sort of sporadic diary a diary recording one day in twenty which happened to stick in the fancy the only kind of diary the author has ever been able to keep Even that diary he could only keep by keeping it in public for bread and cheese But trivial as are the topics they are not utterly without a connecting thread of motive As the reader s eye strays with hearty relief from these pages it probably alights on something a bed post or a lamp post a window blind or a wall It is a thousand to one that the reader is looking at something that he has never seen that is never realised He could not write an essay on such a post or wall he does not know what the post or wall mean He could not even write the synopsis of an essay as The Bed Post Its Significance

Security Essential to Idea of Sleep Night Felt as Infinite Need of Monumental Architecture and so on He could not sketch in outline his theoretic attitude towards window blinds even in the form of a summary The Window Blind Its Analogy to the Curtain and Veil Is Modesty Natural Worship of and Avoidance of the Sun etc etc None of us think enough of these things on which the eye rests But don't let us let the eye rest Why should the eye be so lazy Let us exercise the eye until it learns to see startling facts that run across the landscape as plain as a painted fence Let us be ocular athletes Let us learn to write essays on a stray cat or a coloured cloud I have attempted some such thing in what follows but anyone else may do it better if anyone else will only try
