Shadows Of Memory:

Memory Culture of the Anti-Leftist Violence in Indonesia Grace Tjandra Leksana, 2025-10-01 This book examines how community remembers one of the most gruesome acts of violence in the 20th century the anti communist violence in 1965 in Indonesia Through a case study in a rural district in East Java this research presents complexities of memory culture of violence These memories are not exclusively determined by the state s repressive memory project but are actually embedded in intricate social relations and local context where the violence occurred What people remember forget or silenced is part of the continuous negotiation to claim one s right to relate to the state and to be Indonesian citizen This book redefines the politics of memory that it does not necessarily appear in formal arenas but actually lies in the intricate web of local dynamics often involving transactional and clientelistic practices

The Lamp of Memory John Ruskin, 1885 Diaspora and Memory, 2016-08-01 Experiences of migration and dwelling in displacement impinge upon the lives of an ever increasing number of people worldwide with business class comfort but more often with unrelenting violence Since the early 1990s the political and cultural realities of global migration have led to a growing interest in the different forms of diasporic existence and identities The articles in this book do not focus on the external boundaries of diaspora what is diasporic and what is not but on one of its most important internal boundaries which is indicated by the second term in the title of this book memory It is not by chance that the right to remember the responsibility to recall are central issues of the debates in diasporic communities and their relation to their cultural and political surroundings The relation of diaspora and memory contains important critical and maybe even subversive potentials Memory can transcend the territorial logic of dispersal and return and emerge as a competing source of diasporic identity The articles in this volume explore how shaped by the responsibilities of testimony as well as by the normalizing forces of amnesia and forgetting and political interests memory is a performative figurative process rather than a secure space of identity
