Reporters For The Union:

Reporters for the Union Bernard A. Weisberger, 1953 Journalistic exploits in the first war thoroughly covered by the press Journalism 1908 Betty Houchin Winfield, 2008-09-03 The year 1908 was not remarkable by most accounts but it was an auspicious year for journalism As newspapers sought to recover from big city yellow journalism and circulation wars that reached their boiling point a few years earlier during the Spanish American War press clubs began to champion higher education And schools dedicated to journalism education led by the University of Missouri began to emerge Now sanctioned by universities journalism could teach acceptable behavior and establish credentials It was nothing less than the birth of a profession Journalism 1908 opens a window on mass communication a century ago It tells how the news media in the United States were fundamentally changed by the creation of academic departments and schools of journalism by the founding of the National Press Club and by exciting advances that included early newsreels the introduction of halftones to print and even changes in newspaper design Journalism educator Betty Houchin Winfield has gathered a team of well known media scholars all specialists in particular areas of journalism history to examine the status of their profession in 1908 news organizations business practices media law advertising forms of coverage from sports to arts and more Various facets of journalism are explored and situated within the country s history and the movement toward reform and professionalism not only formalized standards and ethics but also labor issues concerning pay hours and job differentiation that came with the emergence of new technologies This overview of a watershed year is national in scope examining early journalism education programs not only at Missouri but also at such schools as Colgate Washington and Lee Wisconsin and Columbia It also reviews the status of women in the profession and looks beyond big city papers to Progressive Era magazines the immigrant press and African American publications Journalism 1908 commemorates a century of progress in the media and given the place of Missouri s School of Journalism in that history is an appropriate celebration of that school s centennial It is a lode of information about journalism education history that will surprise even many of those in the field and marks a seminal year with lasting significance for the profession The Federal Reporter ,1921 Includes cases argued and determined in the District Courts of the United States and Mar May 1880 Oct Nov 1912 the Circuit Courts of the United States Sept Dec 1891 Sept Nov 1924 the Circuit Courts of Appeals of the United States Aug Oct 1911 Jan Feb 1914 the Commerce Court of the United States Sept Oct 1919 Sept Nov 1924 the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia Gender, Generation, and Journalism in France, 1910-1940 Mary Lynn Stewart, 2018-06-20 In the late nineteenth century the first wave of female journalists began writing in the French daily press Yet while they undeniably opened doors for the next generations of educated women sexist hiring practices assumptions about women s aptitudes as reporters and more subtle gender biases continued to saturate the industry in the decades that followed Gender Generation and Journalism in France 1910 1940 investigates the careers and written work of ten women who regularly reported in the national Paris based dailies Addressing the role of mentorship family connections gendered behaviours reporting styles and subject matter Mary Lynn Stewart debunks lingering essentialist notions about women's entry into journalism She shows that struggling newspapers attempting to reverse declining circulation hired women to cover subjects that expanded to include international relations colonial conflicts trials local politics and social problems Through content analysis deixis and systematic comparisons of several women and men reporting on the same or different events she further queries claims about a feminine style finding more similarities than differences between masculine and feminine reporting Documenting the persistence of gender discrimination in the hiring assigning and assessment of women reporters in the French daily press Gender Generation and Journalism in France 1910-1940 demonstrates that through the support of their female colleagues women managed to succeed despite a variety of challenges
