And the Wolf Finally Came John Hoerr,2014-07-22 Choice 1988 Outstanding Academic Book Named one of the Best Business Books of 1988 by USA Today A veteran reporter of American labor analyzes the spectacular and tragic collapse of the steel industry in the 1980s John Hoerr s account of these events stretches from the industrywide bargaining failures of 1982 to the crippling work stoppage at USX U S Steel in 1986 87 He interviewed scores of steelworkers company managers at all levels and union officials and was present at many of the crucial events he describes Using historical flashbacks to the origins of the steel industry particularly in the Monongahela Valley of southwestern Pennsylvania he shows how an obsolete and adversarial relationship between management and labor made it impossible for the industry to adapt to shattering changes in the global economy

Negotiation Lavinia Hall,1992-12-01 With contributions from top scholars in the field of negotiation this clear and entertaining volume effectively blends technique with theory to present frameworks for effective negotiating analyses of person to person negotiating situations and applications in organizational settings Building on the concept that conflict when managed well can provide the impetus for growth constructive change and mutual benefit the book is dedicated to breaking the paradigm of winning and losing and transforming negotiation into a search for improved solutions to problems

Democracy in an Age of Corporate Colonization Stanley Deetz,1992-01-01 According to Deetz our obsolete understanding of communication processes and power relations prevents us from seeing the corporate domination of public decision making For most people issues of democracy representation freedom of speech and censorship pertain to the State and its relationship to individuals and groups and are linked to occasional political processes rather than everyday life decisions This work reclaims the politics of personal identity and experience within the work environment as a first step to a democratic form of public decision making appropriate to the modern context
