Master Of Disaster:

Master of Disaster Lois T. Hauck, Gary Hauck, 2013-04-22 Ed Pusick was a quiet and eccentric man a bachelor all his life whose passion was his artwork After his time in the Navy when an accident disabled his legs for the rest of his life Ed became a source of many inventive designs as a professional but apparently never took the trouble to seek patents recognition nor much gratitude for his work Ed later drew sketches as an illustrator for an architectural firm in Grand Rapids where he met a co worker who encouraged him to begin drawings of Great Lakes shipwrecks Eds shipwreck art became prolific He created a series of drawings of the most famous vessels of the Great Lakes shipwreck coasts Many of these have been published over the years in the Shipwreck Journal featured on the History Channel displayed in museums and used to illustrate history books and other publications Many of these drawings from Pusick known as the Master of Disaster were produced as limited edition prints Lois Hauck Eds caregiver during the last years of his life explains Ed frequently said he would take his secret of drawing angry waves to his grave And he did This narrative describes the stories and works that were passed on to Lois

The Routledge Handbook of Disaster Risk Reduction Including Climate Change Adaptation Ilan Kelman, Jessica Mercer, JC Gaillard, 2017-09-19 The Routledge Handbook of Disaster Risk Reduction Including Climate Change Adaptation aims to provide an overview and critique of the current state of knowledge policy and practice encouraging engagement and reflection on bringing the two sectors together This long awaited and welcomed volume makes a compelling case that a common research agenda and a series of practical policies and policy recommendations can and should be put in place Over 40 contributions explore DRR including CCA in five parts The first part presents and interrogates much of the typical vocabulary seen in DRR including CCA not only pointing out the useful and not so useful dimensions but also providing alternatives and positive examples The second part explains how to move forward creating and supporting positive crossovers and connections while the third one explores some aspects of multi dimensional approaches to knowing and understanding The fourth part argues for a balanced approach to governance taking both governmental and non governmental governance as well as different scales of governance into consideration The final part of the Handbook emphasises DRR including CCA as an investment rather than a cost and connects its further implementation with livelihoods of people around the world This handbook highlights the connections amongst the processes of dealing with disasters and dealing with climate change It demonstrates how little climate change brings which is new and emphasises the strengths of placing climate change within wider contexts in order to draw on all our strengths while overcoming limitations with specialities It will prove to be a valuable guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate students academics policy makers and practitioners with an interest in disaster risk reduction and climate change Master of Disaster Frank Krake, 2017
