One Little World:

The World's Work, 1919 A history of our time Matthew Frederick Dale Bruner, 2007-06-25 Recognized as a masterly commentary when it first appeared Frederick Dale Bruner's study of Matthew is now available as a greatly revised and expanded two volume work the result of seven years of careful refinement enrichment and updating Through this commentary crafted especially for teachers pastors and Bible students Bruner aims to help God's people love what Matthew's Gospel says Bruner's work is at once broadly historical and deeply theological It is historical in drawing extensively on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions It is theological in that it unpacks the doctrines in each passage chapter and section of the Gospel Consciously attempting to bridge past and present Bruner asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today As a result his commentary is profoundly relevant to contemporary congregations and to those who guide them Bruner's commentary is replete with lively verse by verse discussion of Matthew's text While each chapter expounds a specific topic or doctrine the book's format consists of a vivid original translation of the text followed by faithful exegesis and critical analysis a survey of historical commentary on the text and current applications of the text or theme under study In this revision Bruner continues to draw on the best in modern scholarship including recent work by W D Davies and Dale C Allison Jr by Ulrich Luz and by many others adding new voices to the reading of Matthew At the same time he cites the classic commentaries of Chrysostom Jerome Augustine Luther Calvin Bengel and the rest who like Bruner himself were not simply doctrinal teachers but also careful exegetes of Scripture Such breadth and depth of learning assure that Bruner's Matthew will remain as a reviewer for Interpretation wrote the most dog eared commentary on the shelf Volume 1 of Bruner's commentary is called The Christbook because the first twelve chapters of Matthew are focused on the nature and work of Christ As Bruner proceeds through these chapters he shows how Matthew presents step by step central themes of Christology Jesus coming chapters 1-4 his teaching 5-7 his miracles 8-9 his sermon on mission 10 and his person 11-12 Throughout the book there are also thoughtful discussions of significant topics such as baptism marriage Jewish Christian relations and heaven and hell Eminently readable rich in biblical insight and ecumenical in tone Bruner's two volume commentary on Matthew now stands among the best in the field The Living Age, 1858 The Day The World Blinked Dloyd Hedrick, 1995-12 The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1827 The Missionary Review of the World, 1903 The Workes of Iohn Boys, etc John BOYS (Dean of Canterbury.), 1630 The Theological and Literary Journal, 1859 From the East Gate Adam S. Linton, 2026-01-13 From the East Gate is a highly personal and retrospective selection of sermons from 1996 to 2024 including reflections on what preaching is and isn't with an introductory essay on what the Bible is and how to read it Linton's background in both Eastern Orthodox and Reformed theology including a special interest in Karl Barth combined with his lifelong interests in literature and the arts make for a highly distinctive intersection of perspectives His style is inviting and thought provoking gentle but also provocative and draws his readers into deeper engagement not only with the Scriptures but also into conversation with centuries of Christian thought Deeply traditional in his theological grounding he is also refreshingly difficult to categorize Judicious elements of memoir scattered throughout in which the wilds of Northwest Montana appear make this collection all the more intriguing

Wildflowers and the Call to the Altar is a fascinating story of the history of the St Francis Altar Society embedded within the tri cultural nexus of Santa Fe New Mexico For close to a hundred years the society responded to the call that the church established in 1610 required a formal Altar Society to care for the sanctuary needs yet also to address the personal sanctification of the members Since its inception the society has served the altar of the church and extended its vision to the altar of the world through works of social justice which are more urgent than ever along with the care of the altar and the laundry There is room for the holiness and fidelity of women to serve the church Under the mantle of humility and the commitment to mission the women of the St Francis Altar Society have persisted like the women at the foot of the cross They have embraced the call to ministry and discipleship extended to all in the Gospels Service to the altar extends into the world where the reality of the love of Christ intersects with everyday life
