Provision Of Primary Experience:

The Provision of Primary Experience Barbara Dockar-Drysdale,1990
Barbara Dockar-drysdale,1991 Therapeutic Residential Care for Children and Young People Patrick Tomlinson,Rudy Gonzalez,Susan Barton,2011-09-15 This book provides a model of care for traumatized children based on theory and practice experience pioneered at the Lighthouse Foundation Australia The authors explain the impact of trauma on child development drawing on psychodynamic attachment and neurobiological trauma theories

The Provision of Primary Experience
Residential Life with Children Christopher Beedell,2025-12-01 First published in 1970 Residential Life with Children gives a detailed account of residential work with children The author looks at various kinds of residential institutions the needs of the children and the ways in which these needs are met A section is devoted to important questions concerning the institution and its staff and there is a full examination of residential care as a method of social work The discussion is set within the framework of relevant theory and the influences of Social Service and Government organizations are fully considered This book will be a valuable read for students and researchers of social work and sociology

Intuition is not Enough Linnet McMahan,Linnet McMahan,Adrian Ward,2014-04-08 How do Professionals really learn to improve their practice Intuition is not Enough is a guide for trainers and practitioners working with disturbed children and young people which explores the connections between the challenges of practice and of learning

Dramatherapy Richard Hougham,Bryn Jones,2017-09-16 This unique text is both an accessible introduction and specialist review of contemporary dramatherapy practice today The collected chapters introduce critical and cohesive perspectives on dramatherapy as it is being practiced developed and advanced in diverse contexts and also investigate the connections between the discipline of dramatherapy both as an allied health profession a form of psychotherapy and a traditional form of theatre and healing In so doing the volume unpicks the relationship between drama and therapy exploring some of its key philosophies and practices and examining its efficacy Edited by two experienced lecturers and dramatherapists the book stands as a timely and crucial resource for students and practitioners alike in this growing field It is essential reading for students on dramatherapy arts therapy and applied theatre degree programmes and useful background reading for students of theatre and performance counselling and psychotherapy

Independent Thinking on MFL Crista Hazell,2020-03-09 Crista Hazell s Independent Thinking on MFL How to make modern foreign language teaching exciting inclusive and relevant takes teachers on a tour of how to get the teaching of a new language right Foreword by Ian Gilbert Learning a new language has the power to transform a life as well as help break down the barriers that seem to be re emerging between nations cultures and people In the UK MFL teaching has always had to battle with the everyone speaks English argument not to mention that for so many all that remains of their years learning a foreign language is bitte por favor or s il vous plait But with teachers like Independent Thinking Associate Crista Hazell at the front of the class things can be very different Drawing on her many years of experience as an MFL teacher and head of department Crista shares tips techniques and inspirational ideas geared to help teachers build confidence increase enjoyment and improve outcomes as they take their MFL teaching to a whole new level Crista provides a range of strategies from how to hook students in the minute they enter the classroom to ensuring that the vocabulary sticks designed to help learners develop confidence take risks and enjoy the challenge that learning a new language brings She also offers ideas and advice on how to make learning new vocabulary and grammar a great deal more effective and empowers teachers to open up the benefits and enjoyment of learning a language to all students not just those in the top sets Ultimately however her book sets out to help teachers create engaging relevant and memorable learning experiences in the MFL classroom and encourage their learners to become lifelong and passionate linguists For MFL teachers and heads of languages departments in primary schools secondary schools and colleges Independent Thinking on MFL has been shortlisted for the Educational Book Award in the 2021 Education Resources Awards Consolidated Supplement to the Codes and General Laws of the State of California of 1915 California, James Henry Deering, 1919 Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators Direct Primary Law with the Official Forms California, 1918 School Law of California California, 1925 Report of the Public Schools of the State of Missouri Missouri.
