The Impact of Modernization in Saudi Arabia Robert C. Vasile, ARMY MILITARY PERSONNEL CENTER

ALEXANDRIA VA., 1978 The Saudi leadership has greatly emphasized economic development in modernization efforts Though development is readily measured in economic terms the social impact of modernization is even more critical Rapid changes in the configuration of power among elites can evoke a period of political instability which may invite foreign intervention Personal interviews with Saudis coupled with general trends indicate changes in values and behavior among the society As the momentum of modernization increases risks of disorientation and elite confrontation become inevitable Dual standards of behavior currently suggest a transition from traditional values to modernity The loss of tradition in Saudi Arabia removes the legitimacy of the monarchy Accommodation of innovations will require greater dependence upon bureaucratic and military elites by the ruling family Such reconfiguration of power will serve to alienate the conservative elites and promote unrest among the populace Added flexibility in government must be introduced at this stage or future problems will arise beyond the cure of money Author The DISAM Journal of International Security Assistance Management ,2000

National and International Politics in the Middle East Edward Ingram, 2013-07-23 First published in 2004 Professor Kedourie is known for his unforgettable essays for the pattern of interpretation and view of the world which hold his readers spellbound even when they strongly disagree with his opinions and for Middle Eastern Studies which recently reached its majority and which he and Frank Cass together have turned into the foremost scholarly journal in its field These essays are presented to him by a group of his admirers overseas Transcultural Marketing for Incremental and Radical Innovation Christiansen, Bryan, Yıldız, Salih, Yıldız, Emel, 2013-11-30 As technology continues to drive innovation and impact societies across multiple national boundaries and cultures new approaches towards marketing products must be created and implemented to be successful in an era of hypercompetition Transcultural Marketing for Incremental Radical Innovation provides in depth discussion on tactics for improving existing products while inventing completely new products and product categories This publication will prove to be helpful for scholars practitioners and university students who wish to better understand the importance of marketing products and services across different cultures and multiple languages United States Arms Policies in the Persian Gulf and Red Sea Areas United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 1977 Globalization, Modernization, and Education in Muslim Countries Rukhsana Zia, 2006

Globalisation and modernisation are the buzzwords of the new millennium They serve to sharpen the focus on the dynamic nature of political economic and social systems and in this book the editor and contributors attempt to locate educational changes in a selected number of Muslim countries within the over arching global scene There has been considerable debate about the legitimacy of these terms and both have inspired definitions nuances and accompanying emotions that run the whole gambit from welcoming acceptance to murderous aggressions Terms like ancient medieval or modern when describing eras in the history of Europe with the most recent one being referred to as post modern have been strongly debated And within the broad sweep of globalisation it is argued that there are identifiable stages with many making for exclusive definitions others inclusive
