collection examines a range of English Language Teaching (ELT) research in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA). While the MENA context has witnessed considerable change in recent years, it has so far been under-represented in ELT research at both the regional and the international level. This book aims to fill that gap by surveying the current state of the field, examining in detail a range of issues and concepts, and suggesting future directions for further research. It will be of interest to ELT researchers and practitioners in general, not just those based in MENA contexts themselves.

Teaching English and Maths in FE David Allan, 2017-05-22. This book is a guide for all teachers in the FE and Skills Sector, regardless of their discipline. It explores how FE teachers can address the mathematics and English needs of all learners to redress the skills gap that is a current focus. The text explores what works in the sector, examining the barriers to learning and how all learners can be included. It takes a focused look at what works for the vocational learners who have not succeeded in a school setting and helps tackle the problem of low motivation in learners. The text goes beyond simply providing strategies to follow and includes background theory and detailed case studies to enhance your understanding of different approaches.

El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 1996 R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1996-02. Osprey English For Real Life Home Life (Level 3) Aziza A, 2025-12-26. Osprey English For Real Life Home Life Level 3 is a practical short story book designed to build real English through home situations, rooms, and home objects, cleaning, and chores, cooking, and safety, cooperation at home, and small home problems with calm solutions. This is English you can understand and use without heavy study and without classroom-style content. This book is stories only. No grammar explanations. No vocabulary lists. No exercises. Each story is one complete learning unit with one main idea and a clear closing line so you always understand what happened and what the outcome is. The language is clean, adult, realistic, and culturally safe: no alcohol, no romance, no fantasy, and no controversial themes. Level 3 also adds more home nouns and simple problem-solving language with polite requests that reflect real communication inside a home. You get 50 independent short stories organized into 5 chapters: Rooms, Home Objects, Cleaning, Chores, Cooking, Safety, Home Cooperation, Small Home Problems. The stories become slightly richer across the book, and the word count increases by chapter, helping you build reading confidence without pressure. This book is part of the Osprey English For Real Life Series, a full structured program made of three levels: Beginner Books (1-10), Intermediate Books (11-20), and Advanced Books (21-30). Each level contains 10 books arranged methodically so the English becomes more challenging gradually as you progress. Start at your level, follow the pathway, and build strong real-life English step by step.

About the Series: The Osprey English For Real Life Series is a structured English pathway designed to make English usable in real situations, not just understood in theory. It is written for everyone: adults, teenagers, students, families, and self-learners. The tone is practical and respectful, so it fits individual learning and family learning without sounding like it's only for adults. This series solves a common problem: many learners study English for years yet still struggle to speak or understand in simple daily moments. That happens when materials are too academic, too fast, or disconnected from real life. Osprey fixes this.

with a clear approach short realistic stories that train understanding through context repeat useful language naturally and move forward step by step without sudden jumps The unique value is simple real life English through stories not heavy explanations Each story is one complete learning unit with one main idea and a clear closing line that confirms the outcome There are no grammar lessons no vocabulary lists and no exercises the learning happens through repeated meaningful reading that builds confidence and fluency The program is organized into three levels and each level contains 10 books arranged methodically so the difficulty increases gradually Beginner Stage Levels 1 10 foundations for everyday communication Intermediate Stage Levels 11 20 real situations with details problems and follow ups Advanced Stage Levels 21 30 mature communication for negotiation leadership conflict resolution and formal writing Follow the books in order and you will feel your English become clearer stronger and more natural one story at a time
