

Privateers

- Did you know there were legal pirates? They were known as privateers, and were sent by kings and queens (particularly in England) to steal, plunder and disrupt shipping by their enemies – usually the Spanish and the French.
- Privateers usually got to keep most of what they stole, and really caused big problems for the Spanish, who were making a fortune trading goods, slaves and gold with the New World.
- Life on a privateer ship was pretty good – they usually had better food and more of it than the Royal Navy ships.
