Problems Of Opera Production:

SOME PROBLEMS OF OPERA PRODUCTION IN THE SMALL COLLEGE SELECTED APPROPRIATE REPERTOIRE

Charles House Weedman,1973 Problems of Opera Production Walther Richard Volbach,1953 Opera Production II Quaintance Eaton,2009-06 Opera Production II was first published in 1974 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions For the world of opera this is an indispensable basic reference work which provides essential information about more than 350 operas Producers singers directors students orchestras and audiences will find useful concise information in this handbook a sequel to the author s earlier book Opera Production I A Handbook which contains similar information about more than 500 other operas While the first volume concentrates on more familiar operas this book is devoted principally to lesser known works both old and new including many as yet unperformed contemporary operas The details given about each opera are those needed to assess the production requirements for a given work the number and importance of settings size of orchestra chorus and ballet number of singers their relative importance and individual requirements vocal and acting demands of performers including vocal ranges in most cases plot synopsis and brief historical material to anchor the reader in the necessary knowledge of the period and source of the libretto The information is compressed into capsule form so that anyone using the book can tell at a glance the suitability of a work to the particular facilities talents or tastes of an opera company or its public In addition to the reference material there is a chapter Production Problems in Handel s Opera by Randolph Mickelson a helpful feature since nine of Handel s operas are included and they are apt to pose special production problems A Television Production of Douglas Moore's Opera The Devil and Daniel Webster Martha Scott Mampe,1964 Unsettling Opera David J. Levin,2008-11-15 What happens when operas that are comfortably ensconced in the canon are thoroughly rethought and radically recast on stage What does a staging do to our understanding of an opera and of opera generally While a stage production can disrupt a work that was thought to be established David J Levin here argues that the genre of opera is itself unsettled and that the performance of operas at its best clarifies this condition by bringing opera s restlessness and volatility to life Unsettling Opera explores a variety of fields considering questions of operatic textuality dramaturgical practice and performance theory Levin opens with a brief history of opera production opera studies and dramatic composition and goes on to consider in detail various productions of the works of Wagner Mozart Verdi and Alexander Zemlinsky Ultimately the book seeks to initiate a dialogue between scholars of music literature and performance by addressing questions raised in each field in a manner that influences them all

Social Issues in Television Fiction Lesley Henderson, 2007-06-06 Why are some controversial issues covered in TV soaps and dramas and not others How are decisions really made behind the scenes How do programme makers push boundaries without losing viewers What do audiences take away from their viewing experience Does TV fiction have a greater impact on public understandings than TV news This exciting new book draws on unique empirical data to examine the relationship between popular television fiction and wider society The book gives lively and engaging insights into how and why socially sensitive story lines were taken up by different TV programmes from the late 1980s to the 2000s Drawing on a series of case studies of medicine health illness and social problems including breast cancer mental distress sexual abuse and violence it comprehensively traces the path of storylines from initial conception through to audience reception and uses contemporary examples to link practice to theory For the first time this book addresses production and reception

Light Opera Production Gwynne Burrows, 1929 The Opera Quarterly, 1985 Television Opera Jennifer Barnes, 2003 This book contrasts the buoyant initial intentions of television's policy makers and creative advisers with the subsequent inability for various reasons to deliver as intended The decline in the relationship between television and its commissioned operas is charted through three case studies Menotti's Amahl and the Night Visitors NBC Britten's Owen Wingrave BBC and Gerald Barry's The Triumph of Beauty and Deceit Channel 4 the first a live broadcast the second a video recording and the third a filmed opera made for television Jacket

Manufacturing Facilities Dileep R. Sule, 2008-12-22 Fierce global competition in manufacturing has made proficient facilities planning a mandatory issue in industrial engineering and technology From plant layout and materials handling to quality function deployment and design considerations Manufacturing Facilities Location Planning and Design Third Edition covers a wide range of topics crucial

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1894 Qualitative Research Practice Clive Seale, 2004-02-28 Aimed at the student reader this book demonstrates the benefits of using particular methods from the viewpoint of real life experience It contains chapters written by leading internationally distinguished qualitative researchers who recount and reflect on their own research experiences as well as others Issues in Education Georgia B. Kimmey, 1930 Issues in Education traces the development of Catholic schools in the Diocese of Galveston Houston and the various types of lessons and curriculums that were given emphasis over the past 150 years Author Georgia Kimmey outlines the economic
