Prodigal Parent Process Douglas Weiss, 2021-07-15

The Prodigal Parent Ej Richards, 2021-04-24 I was sitting in church one Sunday reflecting on statements that were spoken by the pastor about his life and his walk with God In telling of his relationship with the Lord it was clear that he had been blessed with knowing Jesus most of his life He raised two sons in the church they've started lives of their own and have blessed the pastor with grandchildren I was struck by the contrast between his life and the lives of those of us who did not have that experience In fact some of us have traveled roads that greatly deviate from the path of this pastor I write this book for all the Prodigal Parents and their children Many parents have squandered opportunities and it is only later in life that we realize the most important things we could have taught our children The world is filled with men and women who would love to have the opportunity to do it over again regarding how they communicated Christ if they even communicated Christ to their children The book goes straight to what is important It emphasizes the urgency of knowing Jesus Christ as Lord and makes no apologies for imploring the reader to know Jesus Why wouldn't the book take that path As one who once was blind but now can see it only makes sense that a parent who has now been enlightened would tirelessly and ceaselessly communicate the goodness of God the need of the Savior and the way of salvation It is never too late The Prodigal Parent will help many adult Christians tell their sons and daughters and grandchildren nieces and nephews what they wish they would have said when
