Encyclopaedic Dictionary of Commercial Polymer Blends L. A. Utracki, 1994 Polymer blending is nearly as old as the polymers themselves However the literature dedicated to this technology is relatively recent and primarily focused on the academic aspects of polymer blends It seems that there is a dichotomy of efforts On one hand annually the industry generates about 30 million tons of blends and on the other academia produces over 10 000 publications dedicated mainly to studies of model systems The Encyclopedic Dictionary discusses blends available in the world market The information comes directly from manufacturers
