Home is Where the Mic Is Vundla, Mandi Poefficient, Horwitz, Allan Kolski, 2019-03-18 This anthology presents the work of twenty four young Spoken Word poets from South Africa with a sprinkling of guests from the United States Britain and Australia The experience of black youth in societies polarized by racism inequality and gender violence whilst at the same time struggling to come to terms with love sex and all the other basic needs of young people makes for fascinating reading The inventive graphic layout is a fine addition to a stand out volume Home is Where the Mic Is was conceived as a collaboration with Word n Sound a popular Johannesburg Spoken Word platform The intention was to give hitherto only stage poets an opportunity to test their work on the page and confound the Eurocentric critics of the new wave of performance poetry who decry its energy and breaking down of artificial definitions of poetry This is South African poetry standing on its own two feet

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
