Understanding Lacan's Objet a Juan Pablo Lucchelli, 2025-08-01 Understanding Lacan's Objet a proposes that we modify the accepted approach to Lacan's ideas and strive to make Lacanian concepts accessible. Juan Pablo Lucchelli gradually introduces conceptual tools following the emergence of this object of objects step by step. The book makes clear the impact of the social in the genesis of objet a as a concept with the inevitable sharing of the subject's being with others at its core. Lucchelli demonstrates that there can be no true autonomy of the individual without recognizing the dependence on the other, thus like Winnicott's transitional object. Lacan's objet a is what connects us to others despite the individualistic pretensions that emerge from the ego. This book will be essential reading both for Lacanian analysts in practice and in training who wish to deepen their knowledge of the concept of the objet a and for students of psychoanalysis philosophy and psychology.

The Parallax View Slavoj Žižek, 2009-02-13 In his long-awaited magnum opus, he theorizes the parallax gap in the ontological, the scientific, and the political and rehabilitates dialectical materialism. The Parallax View is Slavoj Žižek's most substantial theoretical work to appear in many years. Žižek himself describes it as his magnum opus. Parallax can be defined as the apparent displacement of an object caused by a change in observational position. Žižek is interested in the parallax gap separating two points between which no synthesis or mediation is possible, linked by an impossible short circuit of levels that can never meet. From this consideration of parallax, Žižek begins a rehabilitation of dialectical materialism. Modes of parallax can be seen in different domains of today's theory, from the wave-particle duality in quantum physics to the parallax of the unconscious in Freudian psychoanalysis, between interpretations of the formation of the unconscious and theories of drives. In The Parallax View, Žižek, with his usual astonishing erudition, focuses on three main modes of parallax: the ontological difference, the ultimate parallax that conditions our very access to reality, the scientific parallax, the irreducible gap between the phenomenal experience of reality and its scientific explanation, which reaches its apogee in today's brain sciences, according to which nobody is home in the skull, just stacks of brain meat, a condition Žižek calls the unbearable lightness of being; no one, and the political parallax, the social antagonism that allows for no common ground. Between his discussions of these three modes, Žižek offers interludes that deal with more specific topics, including an ethical act in a novel by Henry James and anti-anti-Semitism. The Parallax View not only expands Žižek's Lacanian-Hegelian approach to new domains, notably cognitive brain sciences, but also provides the systematic exposition of the conceptual framework that underlies his entire work. Philosophical and theological analysis, detailed readings of literature, cinema, and music coexist with lively anecdotes and obscene jokes.

A New German Idealism Adrian Johnston, 2018-05-01 In 2012, philosopher and public intellectual Slavoj Žižek published what arguably is his magnum opus, the one-thousand-page tome Less Than Nothing: Hegel and the Shadow of Dialectical Materialism. A sizable sequel appeared in 2014, Absolute Recoil: Towards a New Foundation of Dialectical Materialism. In these two books, Žižek returns to the German idealist G. W. F. Hegel in order to forge a new materialism for the twenty first century i ek s reinvention of Hegelian dialectics explores perennial and contemporary concerns humanity s relations with nature the place of human freedom the limits of rationality the roles of spirituality and religion and the prospects for radical sociopolitical change In A New German Idealism Adrian Johnston offers a first of its kind sustained critical response to Less Than Nothing and Absolute Recoil Johnston a leading authority on and interlocutor of i ek assesses the recent return to Hegel against the backdrop of Kantian and post Kantian German idealism He also presents alternate reconstructions of Hegel s positions that differ in important respects from i ek s version of dialectical materialism In particular Johnston criticizes i ek s deviations from the secular naturalism and Enlightenment optimism of his chosen sources of inspiration not only Hegel but Karl Marx and Sigmund Freud too In response Johnston develops what he calls transcendental materialism an antireductive and leftist materialism capable of preserving and advancing the core legacies of the Hegelian Marxian and Freudian traditions central to i ek

Force, Drive, Desire Rudolf Bernet,2020-02-15 In Force Drive Desire Rudolf Bernet develops a philosophical foundation of psychoanalysis focusing on human drives Rather than simply drawing up a list of Freud s borrowings from Schopenhauer and Nietzsche or Lacan s from Hegel and Sartre Bernet orchestrates a dialogue between philosophy and psychoanalysis that goes far beyond what these eminent psychoanalysts knew about philosophy By relating the writings of Freud Lacan and other psychoanalysts to those of Aristotle Leibniz Schopenhauer Nietzsche Husserl Heidegger and more tacitly Bergson and Deleuze Bernet brings to light how psychoanalysis both prolongs and breaks with the history of Western metaphysics and philosophy of nature Rereading the long history of metaphysics or at least a few of its key moments in light of psychoanalytic inquiries into the nature and function of drive and desire also allows for a rewriting of the history of philosophy Specifically it allows Bernet to bring to light a different history of metaphysics one centered less on Aristotelian substance ousia and more on the concept of dunamis a power or potentiality for a realization toward which it strives with all its might Relating human drives to metaphysical forces also bears fruit for a renewed philosophy of life and subjectivity

Less Than Nothing Slavoj Zizek,2012-05-22 Discover a 1 000 page resurrection of Hegel a giant of Western philosophy from one of the world s best known public intellectuals New York Review of Books For the last two centuries Western philosophy has developed in the shadow of Hegel an influence each new thinker struggles to escape As a consequence Hegel s absolute idealism has become the bogeyman of philosophy obscuring the fact that he is the defining philosopher of the historical transition to modernity a period with which our own times share startling similarities Today as global capitalism comes apart at the seams we are entering a new period of transition In Less Than Nothing the product of a career long focus on the part of its author Slavoj i ek argues it is imperative we not simply return to Hegel but that we repeat and exceed his triumphs overcoming his limitations by being even more Hegelian than the master himself Such an approach not only enables i ek to diagnose our present condition but also to engage in a critical dialogue with key strands of contemporary thought Heidegger Badiou speculative realism quantum physics and cognitive sciences

Modernity will begin and end with Hegel Toward a Theology of Eros Virginia Burrus, Catherine Keller, 2009-08-25 What does theology have to say about the place of eroticism in the salvific transformation of men and women even of the cosmos itself How in turn does eros infuse theological practice and transfigure doctrinal tropes Avoiding the well worn path of sexual moralizing while also departing decisively from Anders Nygren s influential insistence that Christian agape must have nothing to do with worldly eros this book explores what is still largely uncharted territory in the realm of theological erotics The ascetic the mystical the seductive the ecstatic these are the places where the divine and the erotic may be seen to converge and love and desire to commingle Inviting and performing a mutual seduction of disciplines the volume brings philosophers historians biblical scholars and theologians into a spirited conversation that traverses the limits of conventional orthodoxies whether doctrinal or disciplinary It seeks new openings for the emergence of desire love and pleasure while challenging common understandings of these terms It engages risk at the point where the hope for salvation paradoxically endangers the safety of subjects in particular of theological subjects by opening them to those transgressions of eros in which boundaries once exceeded become places of emerging possibility The eighteen chapters arranged in thematic clusters move fluidly among and between premodern and postmodern textual traditions from Plato to Emerson Augustine to Kristeva Mechthild to Mattoso the Shulammitte to Molly Bloom the Zohar to the Da Vinci Code In so doing they link the sublime reaches of theory with the gritty realities of politics the boundless transcendence of God with the poignant transience of materiality M/f ,1983 Filozofski vestnik ,2005 Death and Representation Sarah McKim Webster Goodwin, Elizabeth Bronfen, 1993-12 Death is a subject of increasing interest in virtually all academic disciplines yet there is surprisingly little theoretical work on the representation of death in literary contexts Death and Representation offers a unique collection of international and interdisciplinary essays rich in cultural perspectives but sharing a relatively common vocabulary It provides models for a number of interrelated approaches including psychoanalytic feminist and historical with essays by prominent and promising scholars Contributors are Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Regina Barreca Elisabeth Bronfen Carol Christ Sander Gilman Sarah Webster Goodwin Margaret Higonnet Regina Janes Ellie Ragland Sullivan Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Ronald Schleifer Charles Segal and Garrett Stewart Studio International ,1894 Meridian ,1997

Screening Cowboys Peter Verstraten, 1999 (Per)versions of Love and Hate Renata Salecl, 1998 Why when we are desperately in love do we endlessly block union with our love object Why do we often destroy what we love most Why do we search out the impossible object Is it that we desire things because they are unavailable and therefore to keep desire alive we need to prevent its fulfilment Love and hate go hand in hand since the subject is both attracted and repelled by the uncontrollable jouissance of the other In contemporary society intersubjective relations have changed with the decline of social prohibitions but this change has not simply brought liberation it has also triggered various forms of violence including self mutilation In seeking out new forms of prohibition don t young people who pierce their bodies have something in common with African immigrants who embrace clitoridectomy or with women who act on their dates according to the instructions set out in the Rules In Perversions of Love and Hate Renata Salecl explores the disturbing and complex relationships between love and hate violence and admiration libidinal and destructive drives through investigation of phenomena as diverse as the novels The Age of Innocence and The Remains of the Day Hollywood melodramas the Siren song Ceaucescu s Rumania and the Russian performance artist Oleg Kulik who acts like a dog and bites his audience For Salecl who questions the legitimacy of the calls for tolerance and respect by multiculturalists practices such as body mutilation are symptoms of the radical change that has affected subjectivity in contemporary society "L'Objet Brûlant"

Kristina Valentinova,2010 Qui Parle ,1995 Digest of Technical Papers International Conference on Computer-Aided Design,1984 Body of the Postmodernist Narrator Fatima Festic,2009 The goal of this book is to elaborate the theoretical framework with regard to reading postmodern fiction from the perspective of the bodies of their narrators as textual occurrences It centers on Lacanian psychoanalysis and the intersection between its various political interpretations and feminist theories The emphasis is on the register of the real on the domain of trauma as it appears in contemporary world literature and history and on attempts at artistic resolution of its consequences Since postmodernism is widely interpreted as a Western phenomenon the book tries to show its dependence on much broader spatial political cultural and ideological dimensions taking as index the darker side of literature such as murder and destruction dark courses of desire and the repercussions of their externalization in the reality of life Focusing on the conditions that link contemporary cultures to the narratives and narrators TM bodies the book exposes the potential of bodies revealed in the act of narrating and the ambiguities of their fictionalizing and subjectivizing aspects taking the body as the site of repressed knowledge traumas resistance and manipulative desires The analysis of the fictional works aims to point out a missing link between imagination and the real historical conditions from which imagination derives as well as the discursive struggle to save the tormented territorialized body from the prismatic world by holding to the oeabsent referent and prevent violence caused by the uncritical oepleasure principle Mosaic ,2002 Lacanian Ink ,2003 Scientific American ,1913 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest
