Reproduction of the original Misread Passage of Scripture by J. Baldwin Brown. Misread Passages of Scripture (Classic Reprint) J. Baldwin Brown, 2018-01-17. Excerpt from Misread Passages of Scripture. Perhaps there is no passage of Scripture more constantly misunderstood than these simple words, and certainly there is no misunderstanding of Scripture which has exercised a more detrimental influence on the life and development of the church. The whole passage contains the very marrow of the doctrine of Christ concerning His kingdom. It is the basis of its constitution. To this its subjects have rightly looked in all ages for instruction as to its fundamental spirit, principles, and aims. Words more solemn, more pregnant, were never spoken in this world, in this universe, than these. They were spoken at the very crisis of universal destinies. They form the dividing line between the two eternities. From eternity all things had been working towards that hour, the consummation of the incarnation, and to eternity the influence of that hour would go forth, remoulding, regenerating all the worlds. Beyond any words that have ever been spoken, these words are worthy of intense and reverent attention. They are the words with which the Son of God passed on to the cross, that He might pass up to the throne.
