and parcel of Latin America The book draws attention to ecological inequality and establishes a biopolitical ethics based reading of Latin American art film and literature that operates at the intersection of the built environment and urban settings Heffes suggests that the aesthetic praxis that emerges in from Latin America is permeated with a rhetoric of waste a significant trait that overwhelmingly defines it

Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei, 2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism 1960 1989 and latterly consumerist society and its global market It investigates the critical tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post communist Romania In doing so it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe
