School-based Management American Association of School Administrators,1988-01-01 This pamphlet summarizes the recommendations of a task force of educational administrators who have experience in school based management a process of decentralization of authority based on the beliefs that those most closely affected by decisions ought to play a significant role in making those decisions and that educational reform efforts will be most effective and long lasting when carried out by people who feel a sense of ownership and responsibility for the process Topics covered in the pamphlet are arranged as responses to the following queries 1 just what school based management is 2 why schools are turning to this new management process 3 how school based management relates to teacher empowerment 4 how it affects decision making 5 how to implement school based management and 6 what obstacles districts might face TE School-based management Dorothy Myers,Robert Stonehill,1993 Decentralization and School-based Management Daniel J. Brown,1990 The aims and origins of decentralization are examined and its effects on school flexibility accountability and productivity are explored in some depth Administrators and others tell their stories This volume offers an analysis of how school based management works A Study of Five School-based Management Projects Over a Four-year Period Mary Bynes Chorewycz,1994

Decentralisation, School-Based Management, and Quality Joseph Zajda,David T. Gamage,2009-08-21 This book which is the eighth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses in decentralisation school based management SBM and quality in education globally This book which focuses on decentralisation and SBM as a governance strategy in education presents theoretical aspects of the phenomenon of decentralisation privatisation and contextualises them within the education research literature It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information concerning the dynamics of decentralisation and SBM that normally take place when reforms are instituted to decentralize authority and power Above all the authors offering the latest findings regarding major discourses in decentralisation SBM and quality in educational systems in the global culture emphasise aspects of that dynamic interactive process see also Geo JaJa 2006a Gamage and Sooksomchitra 2006 Zajda 2009 This dynamic interaction in the process that is implicit in the title of the book is reified by calls for restructuring of schools following the idea that schools are not promoting human rights social cohesion and sustainable development The chapters as a source book of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in decentralisation and SBM in education contribute to the educational literature while enhancing the understanding of the larger dynamics involved in educational reform It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting decentralisation in education in the global culture

School-based Management and School Effectiveness Clive A. J. Dimmock, 1993 Concern regarding the quality of education the goals and outcomes of schooling the relationship between education and international economic competitiveness continuous financial stringency and competing social demands for public funds have forced educational authorities in many countries to reassess educational needs both qualitatively and quantitatively For these reasons considerations of improving the effectiveness of schooling have tended to be based around policies of rationalized budget allocations and accountability In most countries the concern has been if not how to achieve effectiveness at a lower cost at least how to achieve effectiveness in the most cost efficient manner This collection brings together new writing from a range of internationally respected experts on school effectiveness leadership skills and school based management and offers advice for heads and managers on improving the effectiveness of schools within tight budgetary constraints

Implementing School-based Management Harry P. Hatry, 1993 This report presents the findings and recommendations of an examination of the implementation of a major form of school based management SBM It is based on case studies of the science and mathematics departments of 10 high schools and 9 middle or junior high schools in 12 school systems almost all of which are urban school districts The study found that implementation often falls short of the ideal It did not find dramatic changes resulting from SBM However those schools and faculty members that took advantage of their added flexibility under SBM were able to achieve numerous small scale improvements The report provides a series of recommendations for school districts and individual schools to increase the likelihood of successful implementation of decentralization efforts such as SBM The findings and recommendations cover such issues as 1 the extent of decentralization of budgeting expenditure and personnel decisions 2 the role of site councils and department heads and 3 communication and training needs Appendixes list participating schools and districts and contain a literature review Contains 117 references Author SLD
