

THE GEOPOLITICS

As "State Science"

IN EFFECT, GEOPOLITICS IS A SCIENCE:

HOW THE WORLD WORKS

It is a science that studies the effects of geography on international politics and international relations. The main objective of any country is to survive and its responsibility is to achieve and maintain an adequate level of power. In this case, having power is having the ability to influence another country. It originated thanks to Rudolf Kjellén in 1916 for his work "State as a way of life". For Kjellén, Geopolitics is one of the five branches that make up the State.

ITS ORIGIN

The other branches are: Cratogeography, Demographic Geopolitics, Cosmogeography.

Methods: Science of Geopolitics

Methodology: Empirical, systematic and ordered based on the geographical factors of the State.

THE VITAL

FRIEDRICH RATZEL

It is the relationship between space and population; the existence of a State is guaranteed when it has enough space to meet the needs of the population.

DISSEMINATION OF GERMAN GEOPOLITICS

KARL HAUSHOFER

German geopolitics is considered deterministic. Because of the relationship established between the State and the land, space and power, and the expansionist spirit of living space, which led to the Second World War, in 1939, German geopolitics basically caused German expansionism between 1939 and 1945.

PIONEERS OF THE STUDY OF

GEOPOLITICS

KARL HAUSHOFER

Haushofer formed a group of collaborators with which he established the foundations of Geopolitics.

ALBERTO RAMOS

He generated a new impulse in 1954 by developing historical, geographical and political arguments of a global nature.

HISTORICAL EVOLUTION

Its philosophical and historical conception is very old. This means that Geopolitics is usually known without being properly structured since it had its presence in anthropological events, such as in ancient civilizations where they were experts in Geopolitics.

Stages
