Repetition In Discourse Interdisciplinary Perspectives:

Repetition in Discourse Barbara Johnstone, 1994-01-01 Repetition in Discourse Barbara Johnstone, 1994 In recent years many humanists and social scientists have rejected the notion that understanding is a simple matter of encoding and decoding Current theory in linguistic pragmatics in rhetoric in cultural anthropology and in literary theory stresses the situated interactive rhetorical nature of understanding Various approaches to the ways understanding is constructed in the process of interaction such as interactional sociolinguistics epistemic rhetoric ethnography of communication functionalist poetics and reader response theory make reference to the crucial role of repetition in this process Linguists have examined repetition in conversation and in language acquisition Anthropologists and folklorists have studied the role of parallelism as a feature of performance and as a recurring characteristic of ritual forms of talk Students of poetics discuss repetition as a key feature of artistic language Literary theorists and rhetoricians discuss intertextuality or the ways in which the authors of new texts make use of old texts Clearly anyone interested in a comprehensive theory of understanding must pay close attention to the mechanisms and functions of repetition Preface

Repetition in Discourse Barbara Johnstone, 1994 Repetition in discourse Barbara Johnstone ed v 1 Repetition in Discourse Barbara Johnstone, The Study of Second Language Acquisition in the Asian Context, 2006 This book will be of special interest to English teachers and those in professional development in the region and or who have classrooms with Asian learners Paradigms appear to be shifting in Asian L2 learning in a region providing huge growth in English education This will have an important bearing on the profession including researchers worldwide

Second and Foreign Language Learning Through Classroom Interaction Joan Kelly Hall, Lorrie Stoops Verplaetse, 2000-06 Brings together a set of papers that share the current theoretical interest in re conceptualizing second foreign language learning from a sociocultural perspective with practical concerns about second foreign language pedagogy The Handbook of Language Socialization Alessandro Duranti, Elinor Ochs, Bambi B. Schieffelin, 2014-01-13 Documenting how in the course of acquiring language children become speakers and members of communities The Handbook of Language Socialization is a unique reference work for an emerging and fast moving field Spans the fields of anthropology education applied linguistics and human development Includes the latest developments in second and heritage language socialization and literary and media socialization Discusses socialization across the entire life span and across institutional settings including families schools work places and churches Explores data from a multitude of cultures from around the world

Making Meanings, Creating Family Cynthia Gordon, 2009-08-12 A husband echoes back words that his wife said to him hours before as a way of teasing her A parent always uses a particular word when instructing her child not to talk during naptime A mother and family friend repeat each other's instructions as they supervise a child at a shopping mall Our everyday conversations necessarily are made up of old elements of language words phrases paralinguistic features syntactic structures speech acts and stories that have been used before which we recontextualize and reshape in new and creative ways In Making Meanings Creating Family Cynthia Gordon integrates theories of intertextuality and framing in order to explore how and why family members repeat one another's words in everyday talk as well as the interactive effects of those repetitions Analyzing the discourse of three dual income American families who recorded their own conversations over the course of one week Gordon demonstrates how repetition serves as a crucial means of creating the complex shared meanings that give each family its distinctive identity Making Meanings Creating Family takes an interactional sociolinguistic approach drawing on theories from linguistics communication sociology anthropology and psychology Its presentation and analysis of transcribed family encounters will be of interest to scholars and students of communication studies discourse analysis sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and psychology especially those interested in family discourse Its engagement with intertextuality as theory and methodology will appeal to researchers in media literary and cultural studies

Capturing Talk: The Institutional Practices Surrounding the Transcription of Spoken Language Martha Komter, Helen Fraser, Emma Richardson, Felicity Deamer, Kate Haworth, Debbie Loakes, 2024-05-22 Across a range of institutional settings practitioners and professionals are eliciting and capturing spoken talk from clients Sarangi 1998 transcribing that talk and later repurposing the transcripts in place of the original interaction This Research Topic seeks both to shed light on this often overlooked institutional process and to encourage further linguistic input into this area of professional practice Transcription is almost always an institutional practice Park Bucholtz 2009 providing a written record of spoken interaction to be used by another party at a later date in another setting or context There are a number of underappreciated features and consequences of this transformational process which we hope this Research Topic will expose and examine

Negation, Text Worlds, and Discourse Laura Hidalgo-Downing, 2000-05 This work originates from the need to develop an integrated dynamic model of negation in discourse that is adequate for understanding the role of negation in an extensive and complex piece of discourse Most work on negation is strongly influenced by traditional philosophical problems but little work has been carried out in the area of discourse Approaches to negation within the functional cognitive tradition tend to focus on specific agents of negation its function as a speech act or its cognitive model Few attempts have been made to propose an integrated discourse model studies of negation with few exceptions tend to be limited to brief selections or isolated sentences This book fills the gap in studies of negation in discourse by providing an up to date critical review of the state of the art in negation and by proposing a model that brings together the semantic cognitive and pragmatic features of negation which are crucial for an understanding of its role in discourse

Repetition in Dialogue Carla Bazzanella, 1996

Modeling Discourse Topic Dionysis Goutsos, 1997 This book is a study of techniques used to introduce continue and change the discourse topic in expository writing Discourse topic is examined by focusing on the sequential techniques and strategies in a step by step process To describe the process a model of sequentiality is proposed The aims of the book are to advance current thinking in discourse analysis and to provide a practical exemplar of expository discourse

The

Production of Spoken Discourse George Houghton,1997 This volume focuses on spoken language and its production It is part of a series which provides a forum for the cross fertilization of ideas from diverse disciplines that share a mutual interest in discourse A variety of approaches to the topic are represented sociolinguistics psycholinguistics ethnomethodology and the study of language educational psychology and computational linguistics

Discourse in Society Michael Alexander Kirkwood Halliday,1995

New Foundations for a Science of Text and Discourse Robert de Beaugrande,1997-02 A magnum opus in the now vast domain of discourse studies whose history methods and subdomains nobody knows as well as Robert de Beugrande No other book in the humanities and social sciences today integrates such encyclopedic knowledge into a thoroughly transdisciplinary international intercultural and critical program For all advanced students of discourse this book should be their major mentor guide and compendium of research

Teun A van Dijk University of Amsterdam and Editor of the journals Text and Discourse and Society Professor de Beugrande has been one of the most influential scholars in text linguistics since he helped to found it as a discipline He commands a large panorama of knowledge and brings this learning to bear on a variety of topics giving fresh insights and new dimensions In his latest book he ranges over linguistic educational and cultural disciplines in order to synthesize an important framework within which text and discourse can be understood in new ways
