Playing With Time:

On a Silver Platter Greg M. Smith, 1999 When the new medium of CD ROMs emerged industry figures and critics alike proclaimed their virtually unlimited potential Adapting material from well established media like television and film CD ROMs have quickly transformed genres such as science fiction and horror At the same time the realities of actual CD ROMs often fall short of their utopian visions On a Silver Platter marks a coming of age for CD ROMs as a commercially and aesthetically significant medium demanding critical attention Greg Smith brings together media scholars such as Lisa Cartwright Henry Jenkins Janet Murray and Scott Bukatman to analyze how CD ROMs offer alternatives to familiar places to museums to cities and especially to classrooms Examining specific CD ROM titles including Sim City Civilization and Phantasmagoria the contributors argue that CD ROMs are complex texts worthy of close consideration both for how they have changed our understanding of space and genre and for how they will impact the development of future media By examining particular CD ROM texts and contexts On a Silver Platter probes this new medium for insight and understanding into the current state of multimedia and into the future of technology Education Outside the Classroom Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education and Skills Committee, 2005 The Committees report examines the wide range of outdoor learning experiences from lessons held within school grounds to residential expeditions abroad and considers the place of outdoor learning in the curriculum from foundation stage to higher education Issues discussed include the value of outdoor learning and the decline of opportunities for educational opportunities outside the classroom the barriers that deter schools from teaching outside the classroom including perceptions of risks in school trips the resources and curriculum time available for such trips availability and costs involved policy options for the Department for Education and Skills to help encourage schools improve and expand provision for outdoor learning and funding implications The Committees recommendations include that the DfES should issue a Manifesto for Outdoor Learning which gives all students the right to outdoor learning and which should attract a similar funding level to the music manifesto around 30 million in order to deliver real change Code of Federal Regulations, 2009 Home Recording of Copyrighted Works United States.
