Today's catering breakfast menu reflects both current trends in meal planning and healthy-eating concerns. The general catering breakfast menu outline is given in Figure 5.6.

Styles of Service

Establishing the level and type of table service that a catering service offers as a daily standard of operation is necessary to the menu development process. The selection of service style is influenced by the following factors:

- Skill level of available waitstaff
- Cuisine being served
- Available equipment
- Menu price range
- Customer profile

The styles of table service adaptable for banquet service are:

- French service
- Russian service
- American service
- Buffet service

FRENCH SERVICE

French service in American foodservice operations is often combined with aspects of Russian service. Classical French service requires a brigade de service, or six-member dining-room staff, and is inappropriate for catering service due
