Made Healthy in Ministry for Ministry C. John Weborg,2011-08-11 Clarity of vocational practice is key to clergy health The center of clergy practice is the ministry of Word and Sacrament What takes place at the pulpit font or pool and table is the divine intent and extent of ministry While this may sound in house and parochial in the extreme it is both priestly and prophetic John Weborg s argument in this book is that the clergy can be made healthy in ministry for ministry by maintaining vocational clarity The priestly and prophetic acts of Word and Sacrament address the clergy before they address the congregation Hence what is offered here is a spirituality through practices the clergy are hearers before preachers baptized before baptizers communicants before celebrants Neither a how to book nor a work of pastoral theology Made Healthy in Ministry for Ministry is aimed toward helping clergy appropriate the gifts and graces of the practices they are called and authorized to carry out

The Pastor's Hospital Ministry Richard K. Young,1954

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven,1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today s society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model

The pastor in print Amy G. Tan, 2022-06-21 The pastor in print explores the phenomenon of early modern pastors who chose to become print authors addressing ways authorship could enhance limit or change clerical ministry and ways pastor authors conceived of their work in parish and print It identifies strategies through which pastor authors established authorial identities targeted different sorts of audiences and strategically selected genre and content as intentional parts of their clerical vocation The first study to provide a book length analysis of the phenomenon of early modern pastors writing for print it uses a case study of prolific pastor author Richard Bernard to offer a new lens through which to view religious change in this pivotal period By bringing together questions of print genre religio politics and theology the book will interest scholars and postgraduate students in history literature and theological studies and its readability will appeal to undergraduates and non specialists

Religion as a Profession Hans Schilderman, 2005-09-01 This volume offers a conceptual and empirical study of the religious profession It takes as its point of departure professionalisation theory that is discussed and applied to a profession in mainstream religion in this case Dutch Catholic ministry The book entails a well documented empirical study of attitudes of clergy and lay personnel in the Dutch Roman Catholic Church regarding the pastoral profession Their attitudes towards church authority apostolicity sacramental efficacy accession to the office and spiritual role are described extensively The research clarifies the extent to which these religious attitudes act as a positive or negative motif to engage in policies that are aimed at a professional development of the occupation The book offers an excellent insight into basic characteristics of a religious profession
