Three Texts on Consciousness Only Numata Center for Buddhist Translation and Research,1999 This volume comprises three important texts of the Yogacara school Demonstration of Consciousness Only is a translation of Vasubandhu s Thirty Verses plus the interpretation of Dharmapala as the ultimately correct view of the text with the supplementation of two or three divergent interpretations It is an attempt to answer the question of the mechanism and nature of ignorance by demonstrating that seemingly real external objects of perception and the equally seemingly real self who perceives these things are mental fabrications that do not exist apart from consciousness itself Thirty Verses on Consciousness Only is the short verse work by Bodhisattva Vasubandhu that propounds the idea that nothing exists except consciousness or mind and that all things believed by the ordinary person to be objective realities outside mind are in reality mere mental constructs The Treatise in Twenty Verses on Consciousness Only is a companion piece to the Thirty Verses It is a series of hypothetical objections by possible opponents with replies by Vasubandhu The objections of opponent takes the realistic no nonsense position that the things seen heard smelled etc are real things that exist in the world outside the mind The opponent typically offers an argument as to why it cannot be possible for perceived objects to be merely mental constructs Vasubandhu counters each argument explaining why the realistic argument is faulty and why objects of perception cannot rationally be considered to exist apart from consciousness Century Path ,1903 Chronicle of the Horse ,1976 Progress ,1897 Issued in the interests of university and worlds congress extension Reading in Indianapolis ,2000-04 The Star ,1928

Kandinsky Kenneth C. Lindsay,Peter Vergo,1994-03-22 The importance of Kandinsky s art and thought in the history of modern art combined with the completeness careful scholarship and crisp design of this volume make it especially useful Choice Of all the giants of twentieth century art Wassily Kandinsky 1866 1944 was the most prolific writer Here available for the first time in paperback are all of Kandinsky s writings on art newly translated into English Editors Kenneth C Lindsay and Peter Vergo have taken their translations directly from Kandinsky s original texts and have included select interviews lecture notes and newly discovered items along with his more formal writings The pieces range from one page essays to the book length treatises On the Spiritual in Art 1911 and Point and Line to Plane 1926 and are arranged in chronological order from 1901 to 1943 The poetry good enough to stand on its literary merits is presented with all the original accompanying illustrations And the book s design follows Kandinsky s intentions preserving the spirit of the original typography and layout Kandinsky was nearly thirty before he bravely gave up an academic career in law for his true passion painting Though his art was marked by extraordinarily varied styles Kandinsky sought a pure art throughout one which would express the soul or inner necessity of the artist His uncompromising search for an art which would elicit a response to itself rather than to the object depicted resulted in the birth of nonobjective art and in these writings Kandinsky offered the first cogent explanation of his aims His language was characterized by its desire for vivification of the infusion of life into mundane things Considered as a whole Kandinsky s writings exceed all expectations of what an artist should accomplish with words Not only do his ideas and observations make us rethink the nature of art and the way it reflects the aspirations of his era but they touch on matters vital to the situation of the human soul The Journal of the International Association of Buddhist Studies
