The Spirit and the Screen Steven Félix-Jäger, Chris E. W. Green, 2023-05-15 The Spirit and the Screen engages contemporary films from the perspective of pneumatology to give theologians of culture fruitful new perspectives that begin with the Spirit rather than other common theological contact points Christology anthropology theological ethics creation eschatology etc This book explores pertinent pneumatological issues that arise in film as well as literary devices that draw allusions to the Spirit It offers three main contributions first it explores how Christian understandings of the person and work of the Spirit illuminate the nature of film and film making second it shows that there are in fact Spirit figures in film as distinct from but inseparable from Christ figures even if sometimes they are not intended as such Spirit led characters are moved to act prophetically against their inclinations and in excess of their skill or knowledge and with eccentric life giving creativity third it identifies subtle and explicit symbolizations of the Spirit in pop culture symbolizations that require deep careful thinking about the Christian doctrine of the Spirit and generate new horizons for cultural analysis The contributors of this book explore these issues asking how Christian convictions and experiences of the Spirit might shape the way one thinks about films and film making

Preaching Must Die! Jacob D. Myers,2017-10-18 The real question for homiletics in our increasingly postmodern post Christian contexts is not how we are going to prevent preaching from dying but how we are going to help it die a good death Preaching was not made to live At most preaching is a witness a sign a crimson X marking a demolition site The church has developed sophisticated technologies in modernity to give preaching the semblance of life belying the truth preaching was born under a death sentence It was born to die Only when preaching embraces its own death is it able to live This book then is a bold homiletical manifesto against preaching in support of preaching and beyond preaching to the entire worship experience It troubles modern homiletical theologies in light of the trouble always already at work within preaching Hereby it supports a way of preaching and teaching preaching that moves counter to the wisdom of this world It aims to joins in God s self revealed counterlogic of superabundance that saturates and thereby breaks open worldly systems of thought and practice The purpose of this book is to expose preaching to its own death to help it embrace its death so that it can discover what eternal and abundant life might look and feels like
