THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY PRISON FARM

After several years of experience with renting a farm on which the inmates of the county prison were given occupation, the Commissioners of Montgomery County, at the instance of the Board of Prison Inspectors, and with the approval of the Court, have purchased eighty acres in Lower Province Township for a penal farm. It is planned ultimately to locate the county prison on this tract, maintaining quarters for detention purposes only in Norristown.

The new prison farm is splendidly located in the same Perkiomen Valley as the New Eastern State Penitentiary; the high altitude makes it a very healthy spot and the tract is said to be rich in natural resources. There is a stone quarry which will provide work for a group of prison inmates, extracting stone for the buildings which are to be erected and for the roads that will be made, connecting the main highway with the tract. Practically all of the acreage will be put under cultivation and a small quantity of stock will be maintained. For the present, the inmates of the county prison at Norristown will work on the rented farm which has been put in a splendid condition and is planted with this year's crops, and another group will start development on the newly acquired prison farm.

The Pennsylvania Prison Society congratulates the Commissioners, the Judges, and the Board of Prison Inspectors for taking this worthwhile step. Warden Martin L. Horn is in charge of the program and he should have the support of the citizens of Montgomery County.
