The Admirals Advantage offers a revealing look at naval operational intelligence based on the findings of a classified Operational Intelligence OPINTEL Lessons Learned Project and a 1998 Symposium at the Navy and Marine Corps Intelligence Training Center. Participants included senior intelligence and operational leaders who explored the evolution and significance of OPINTEL since World War II. Past and current practices were examined with inputs from fleet and shore commands and insights from interviews and correspondence with senior flag officers and intelligence professionals.

Rod Bush: Lessons from a Radical Black Scholar on Liberation, Love, and Justice Melanie E. L. Bush, Rose M. Brewer, Daniel Douglas, Loretta Chin, Robert Newby, 2019-01-01 Editor Melanie E L Bush Foreword Robin D G Kelley Co editors Rose M Brewer Daniel Douglas Loretta Chin Robert Newby Series Editor Mohammad H Tamdgidi Roderick Douglas Bush 1945-2013 was a scholar, educator, mentor, activist, and a loving human being. In reflecting on his life, well-lived, the contributors in Rod Bush: Lessons from a Radical Black Scholar on Liberation, Love, and Justice share insightful lessons from his life and works on how to effect liberation and radical social transformation in the everyday practices of scholarship, teaching, activism, and personal interaction through a loving spirit dedicated to social justice. Rod Bush was deeply convinced that Pan-European racism is the Achilles heel of the modern world system, and the demographic situation of the United States with its large, strategically located populations of color is a key locus of struggle for a more just, democratic, and egalitarian world order. This book shows, by the example of Rod Bush, how one can be the change through a commitment to everyday practices and personal transformations that embody, enable, embrace, and engage global social change. This anthology provides deep reflections on the question of how one can live radical principles in contemporary times. What does it mean to be human? How does one embed love and justice in one's worldview and daily practice? Rod Bush, partner, colleague, teacher, mentor, comrade, and friend, was well-known as an activist scholar who incorporated his values into his teaching, mentorship, and everyday interactions. Therefore, his theoretical interests and practical involvements in movements are intimately linked and simultaneous. In his foreword, Robin D G Kelley shares his intimate views of Rod Bush's life and works. In his view, Rod's commitment to study and struggle in the service of human liberation knew no boundaries. His vision was planetary. He wrote critically and brilliantly about Black radical movements here and abroad and about the destructive power of racism, colonialism, capitalism, the modern world system, all with the goal of transforming a society based on exploitation, subjugation, and war into a society rooted in mutual benefit, life, and love. At a historical moment when the political landscape is fraught with volatility and the Movement for Black Lives and other struggles for dignity and justice gain increasing momentum, Rod's life serves as an example providing many lessons that we can draw from and practice ourselves.

Rod consistently asserted that it is critical to recognize the historical leadership of those involved in struggles for Black Liberation and justice writ large For a vision for Black Lives is indeed a vision that benefits all humanity The anthology is edited by Melanie E L Bush and co edited by Rose M Brewer Daniel Douglas Loretta Chin and Robert Newby Contributors include Robin D G Kelley Foreword Angelo Taiwo Bush Chriss Sneed Daniel Douglas Godfrey Vincent Matthew Birkhold Loretta Chin Latoya A Lee Tatiana Chichester A Kia Sinclair Moj b ol Oluf nk Okome Natalie P Byfield Komozi Woodard Bob Barber Rodney D Coates Charles Cappy Pinderhughes Jr James V Fenelon Walda Katz Fishman Jerome Scott Rose M Brewer Robert Newby Roderick D Bush and Melanie E L Bush The anthology is a volume XII 2019 in the Edited Collection Series of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge edited by Mohammad H Tamdgidi Endorsements One look at the list of contributors to this compendium with its diverse assembly of scholars and I knew that Rod Bush s lessons would be fully absorbed and explicated I only wish I could have spent more time with him and been a beneficiary of his immense insights on love liberation and justice Rod would be proud of the commentaries and the thoughtful devotion of the editors Herb Boyd writer activist and academic most recently author of Black Detroit A People s History of Self Determination and the forthcoming Black Panther Film Paradigm Shift or Not An Anthology co edited with Haki Madhubuti Though sadly not a household name when the history of his era is written undoubtedly the immense intellectual and political contributions of Rod Bush will not only be acknowledged but also celebrated The volume at hand gives an indication of why this is so Gerald Horne author The Apocalypse of Settler Colonialism The Roots of Slavery White Supremacy and Capitalism in 17th Century North America and the Caribbean This is a brilliant collection of essays by notable engaged scholars celebrating the life and work of Rod Bush as a whole forming a textual critique of Bush s essential research theory and writing It elucidates the most important decolonial movements of our time including race class and gender Black internationalism Black nationalism and Native American struggles social justice and more Other essays reveal the beauty and ethical stance of the man himself The book is a treasure that social science and humanities instructors will find invaluable as a teaching text Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz professor emerita author of An Indigenous Peoples History of the United States and Loaded A Disarming History of the Second Amendment Rod Bush was a most remarkable person He started out as my student and became my friend and collaborator Rod mixed first class scholarship with first class activism He became a model for all of us We shall miss him dearly The way to honor him is to emulate him We can all learn from him Immanuel Wallerstein Senior Research Scholar Yale University author of The Modern World System I IV and The World System and Africa This volume is not only a welcome tribute to a deep thinker talented organizer outstanding teacher and a caring compassionate human being It is also a rich tapestry of insights stories and images that inspires us to keep pushing until everyone everyone lives in a world of peace justice and freedom Max Elbaum author of Revolution in the Air Sixties Radicals Turn to Lenin Mao and Che Federal Register ,2012-07 Lessons Learned Baron Perlman, Lee I.
