The Big Somewhere Steven Powell, 2018-07-12 Shortlisted for the H R F Keating Award 2020 James Ellroy s identity as a crime writer is rooted in his extraordinary life story and relationship with his home city of Los Angeles Beginning with the unsolved murder of his mother Geneva Hilliker Ellroy in 1958 Ellroy s early life played a large role in shaping his obsessions with murder the criminal underworld of L A and the redemptive power of the feminine Ellroy s life could be seen as a brutal visceral and emotionally exhausting realisation of the American Dream a theme he has explored in his writing to the extent that he is credited with reinventing crime fiction The Big Somewhere Essays on James Ellroy s Noir World is an in depth scholarly study of the work of James Ellroy featuring leading Ellroy scholars such as Anna Fl gge Jim Mancall and Rodney Taveira Moving from Ellroy s early detective novels to his later epic works of historical fiction it explores how Ellroy found his place in the history of the genre by building on and then surpassing the works of authors who influenced him such as Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and Joseph Wambaugh It also examines Ellroy s impact on contemporary writers and on the cultural perception of L A which has been his legacy through the L A Quartet novels The Big Somewhere is not a geographical location but a conglomeration of the cinematic historical and fictional worlds that influenced Ellroy from film noir to the Kennedy era in American politics and on which he in turn has left his mark

Street with No Name Andrew Dickos, 2021-10-26 Andrew Dickos s Street with No Name traces the film noir genre back to its roots in German expressionist cinema and the French cinema of the interwar years Dickos describes the development of the film noir in America from 1941 through the 1970s and examines how this development expresses a modern cinema He argues that in its most satisfying form the film noir exists as a series of conventions with an iconography and characters of distinctive significance Featuring stylized lighting and urban settings these films tell melodramatic narratives involving characters who commit crimes predicated on destructive passions corruption and a submission to human weakness and fate Unlike other studies of the noir Street with No Name follows its development in a loosely historical style that associates certain noir directors with those features in their films that helped define the scope of the genre Dickos examines notable directors such as Orson Welles Fritz Lang Otto Preminger and Robert Siodmak He also charts the genre s influence on such celebrated postwar French filmmakers as Jean Pierre Melville Francois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Addressing the aesthetic cultural political and social concerns depicted in the genre Street with No Name demonstrates how the film noir generates a highly expressive raw and violent mood as it exposes the ambiguities of modern postwar society
