What is a maths meeting?

Maths meetings are short, daily sessions to consolidate learning, extend it, help learners with a focus on key skills and mathematical concepts. They are a great opportunity for reinforcement and support in the middle of lessons and learning. Maths meetings should be engaging and interactive, involving all pupils in the game or activity, to build confidence.

Headteachers may want to consider strategies that can help their pupils when choosing and implementing maths meetings (p. 1)
