Capital Histories Patricia L. Garside, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this book reprints eight articles from The London Journal covering the history of London from the middle ages to the twentieth century Each is an extensive bibliographical essay updated by the individual contributors for this anthology The book comes with a new introduction from a previous editor of the journal Patricia Garside and also with a specially commissioned guide to sources for London history and the libraries and special collections that house them The London Journal was founded in 1975 to provide a forum for the study of London history an eclectic and multi disciplinary field As well as articles based on original research The London Journal has carried notes and comments viewpoint and review articles and general surveys of particular aspects of London life In the past few decades the specialist literature on London has become extensive intricate and dense The opportunity for a systematic review of this literature presented itself on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of The London Journal and the core of the work presented here first appeared in Volume 20 2 November 1995 Each of the authors specialists in one of seven periods from Roman to contemporary times was asked to evaluate the literature that had appeared in their field of London expertise during the last 20 years For this book each contribution has been updated where possible to take account of the very latest publications The Moral Mapping of Victorian and Edwardian London Thomas R.C.

Gibson-Brydon, 2016-03-29 The London poor and the cruel world of Christian charity circa 1900 Visions of empire Brad Beaven, 2017-02-01 The emergence of a vibrant imperial culture in British society from the 1890s both fascinated and appalled contemporaries It has also consistently provoked controversy among historians This book offers a ground breaking perspective on how imperial culture was disseminated It identifies the important synergies that grew between a new civic culture and the wider imperial project Beaven shows that the ebb and flow of imperial enthusiasm was shaped through a fusion of local patriotism and a broader imperial identity Imperial culture was neither generic nor unimportant but was instead multi layered and recast to capture the concerns of a locality The book draws on a rich seam of primary sources from three representative English cities These case studies are considered against an extensive analysis of seminal and current historiography This renders the book invaluable to those interested in the fields of imperialism social and cultural history popular culture historical geography and urban history Labour History Review, 2000 The Rise and Fall of Rome Papal and the Destruction of the Turkish Empire Predicted in a Discourse Delivered in 1701 Robert Fleming, 1877

The Persistence of Spiritual Ideals in English Letters ... Henry Nelson Snyder, 1927 Snyder traces religious passion and spiritual idealism in English literature from Beowulf and the Germanic tribes that entered England in the fifth and sixth centuries to the Canterbury Tales and the Vision of Piers Plowman to the writings of Edmund Spenser and Shakespeare to Pilgrim s Progress to Paradise Lost and the works of Wordsworth to the Victorian era to Charles Darwin Thomas Carlyle and John Ruskin to Tennyson and Robert Browning Getting the Measure of Poverty Roy Sainsbury, Jonathan

Bradshaw,2000 A collection of papers with a historical theme representing a fundamental review of A Study of Town Life and its impact on poverty studies and wider empirical research The biblical museum. Old Testament James Comper

Gray,1880 Encyclopedia of the Victorian Era: Mann-Spin ,2004 Royal Historical Society Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History Austin Gee,1996 The Royal Historical Society s Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of books and articles on historical topics published in a single calendar year The volume covers all periods of British and Irish history from Roman Britain to the late twentieth century and also includes a section on imperial and commonwealth history It is the most complete and up to date bibliography of its type and an indispensable tool for historians The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode,1998 Challenge and Change in the Information Society Susan Hornby,Zoë Clarke,2003 Information delivery and use is being challenged by social and technological developments causing a rethink of the role of information providers in society This text represents many perspectives on today s information society and addresses key discussion areas within the information society debate

Current Contents ,1998 States of Inquiry Oz Frankel,1998 Underclass John Welshman,2006 Who are those at the bottom of society There has been much discussion in recent years on both Left and Right about the existence of an alleged underclass in both Britain and the USA It has been claimed this group lives outside the mainstream of society is characterised by crime suffers from long term unemployment and single parenthood and is alienated from its core values In Underclass John Welshman shows that there have always been concerns about an underclass whether constructed as the social residuum of the 1880s the problem family of the 1950s or the cycle of deprivation of the 1970s There are marked differences between these concepts but also striking continuities Indeed a concern with an underclass has in many ways been as long as an interest in poverty itself This book is the first to look systematically at the question providing new insights on contemporary debates about behaviour poverty and welfare reform Biography Index Bea Joseph,1990 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 New Ethnicities, Old Racisms Phil Cohen,1999 A critique of essentialist definitions of race nation and ethnicity across key areas of cultural policy and practice It discusses ways of tackling popular cultures of racism the histories of previously marginalized racisms and sexism and the impact of changing patterns of migration The Gissing Journal ,1999 The Vedic Harappans Bhagavāna Siṃha,1995
