Return Of The Sphinx:

The Return of the Sphinx Hugh MacLennan, 2011-05-01 Alan Ainslie is an able and dedicated man high in the government Daniel Ainslie his son is a member of an explosive movement impelled by the naive rebelliousness of the New Left Hugh MacLennan weaves a complex and story of two generations in conflict Originally published in 1967 Return of the Sphinx is something of a sequel to the more optimistic Two Solitudes and reflects MacLennan s disenchantment with the world in general and the apparently intractable French English debate in Canada Return of the Sphinx Hugh MacLennan (Ecrivain.), 1967 Return of the Sphinx Seacee, 2010 Return of the sphinx, N.Y., C. Scribner's Sons Hugh MacLennan, Return of the Sphinx: a Novel Hugh MacLennan, 1967 Under the Sign of the Shield Froma I. Zeitlin, 2009-01-01 A study of the last drama of Aeschylus trilogy concerned with the fortunes of the house of Laius that ends with the story of Oedipus sons the enemy brothers who self destruct in mutual fratricide but thereby save the besieged city of Thebes The book s findings however far exceed these limits to explore the relationships between language and kinship as between family and city self and society and Greek ideas about the nature of human development and identity China, Cultural Heritage, and International Law Hui Zhong, 2017-11-27 China is a country that is rich in antiquities but it is also a victim of looting that occurred during the period from the First Opium War to the end of the Japanese Occupation 1840 1945 when innumerable cultural objects were lost overseas The Chinese Government insists on asserting its interest over its wrongfully removed cultural heritage and has sought for the return of lost cultural heritage by all means in accordance with relevant international conventions and Chinese laws However securing the return has been and continues to be problematic Little research has been done regarding the question as to whether China has a legal basis for recovery which is the first legal hurdle that China needs to get over In addition China does not have a legal basis for all cultural heritage taken during the period of 1840 1945 Claims for return without a legal basis are usually silenced or at best discussed only but very rarely facilitated This book provides an answer for the return of Chinese cultural heritage It examines the law contemporaneous to the removal of Chinese cultural heritage and its application For this lack of a legal basis this book argues that a new customary international law is emerging according to which the interests of the states of origin in their wrongfully removed heritage should be prioritised This proposed customary rule supports the return of wrongfully removed heritage Once this proposed customary rule is accepted it will provide a stronger argument not only for China but also for other states of origin with a similar dilemma including South Korea Egypt Greece Cambodia Turkey Peru and Italy to recover their wrongfully removed heritage While dealing with a large pool of return cases this book is valuable to museums and art collectors in the event of buying and accepting art objects and settling recovery disputes with states of origin It will also be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students in the fields of cultural heritage law international law international trade and human rights law The New Age Magazine , 1915 High Performance MySQL Baron Schwartz, Peter

Saturday Night ,1967 The Sphinx's Lawyer Julia Frankau,1906 The Boy Marina Carr,2025-10-09 Your woman ranting who said this who said that who said the other all boils down to the usual rigmarole. The Oracle says don't. The clodhopper says I will if I want. The Oracle flattens him. The clodhopper cuts out his eyes or the other clodhoppers cut them out for him. The clodhopper repents. The Oracle relents. Everyone dies and they all live happily ever after until the whole malarkey begins again. Marina Carr brings a contemporary lens to the pain and beauty of Sophocles' Theban trilogy in two new plays published together here. This epic, darkly funny retelling of the story of Oedipus and his family continues. Carr's vivid conversation with the foundations of modern drama. The Boy and The God and His Daughter opened at the Abbey Theatre Dublin in September 2025. The Boy was first performed at the Abbey Theatre Dublin in September 2025.

Oriental Cairo Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen,1911 Mr Sladen found that Cairo included a glorious mediaeval city of the Arabian Nights with innumerable monuments of medieval Arab architecture and unspoiled native life. To this he strives to call attention in a book that he hopes to make chatty and interesting. And he unquestionably succeeds. Mr Sladen at his best is easily capable of writing. By reading the book the tourist will learn how to shop in Cairo as well as how to enjoy the humors of the Esbekiya and countless other entertaining features of this variegated modern capital. He will even know the Artist's Bits in Cairo and will receive explicit directions how to find them. In other words he need no longer be a tame tourist in the hands of a masterful dragoman.

New Age Magazine ,1915 Hugh MacLennan Thomas Donald MacLulich,1983 Cut/Copy/Paste Whitney Trettien,2022-02-15 How do early modern media underlie today's digital creativity? In Cut Copy Paste Whitney Trettien journeys to the fringes of the London print trade to uncover makerspaces and laboratories where paper media were cut up and reassembled into radical, bespoke publications. Bringing these long forgotten objects back to life through hand-curated digital resources, Trettien shows how early experimental book hacks speak to the contemporary conditions of digital scholarship and publishing. As a mixed-media artifact itself, Cut Copy Paste enacts for readers what Trettien argues that digital forms have the potential to decenter patriarchal histories of print. From the religious household of Little Gidding whose biblical concordances and manuscripts exemplify protofeminist media innovation to the queer poetic assemblages of Edward Benlowes and the fragment albums of former shoemaker John Bagford, Cut Copy Paste demonstrates history's relevance to our understanding of current media. Tracing the lives and afterlives of amateur bookwork, Trettien creates a method for identifying and comprehending hybrid objects that resist familiar bibliographic and literary categories. In the process she bears witness to the deep history of radical publishing with fragments and found materials With many of Cut Copy Paste s digital resources left thrillingly open for additions and revisions this book reimagines our ideas of publication while fostering a spirit of generosity and inclusivity An open invitation to cut copy and paste different histories it is an inspiration for students of publishing or the digital humanities as well as anyone interested in the past present and future of creativity The Apocryphal New Testament ,1926
