Return With Honor:

Return with Honor Scott O'Grady, Jeff Coplon, 1996-10 O Grady tells how he managed to survive after being shot down over Bosnia evading the Bosnian Serbs for six days and how he was rescued by U S Marines Lessons from the Hanoi Hilton Taylor B Kiland, Peter Fretwell, Estate of Jack London, James B Stockdale, 2013-05-15 Why were the American POWs imprisoned at the Hanoi Hilton so resilient in captivity and so successful in their subsequent careers This book presents six principles practiced within the POW organizational culture that can be used to develop high performance teams everywhere The authors offer examples from both the POWs time in captivity and their later professional lives that identify in real life situations the characteristics necessary for sustainable high performance teamwork The book takes readers inside the mind of James Stockdale a fighter pilot with a degree in philosophy who was the senior ranking officer at the Hanoi prison The theories Stockdale practiced become readily understandable in this book Drawing parallels between Stockdale s guiding philosophies from the Stoic Epictetus and the principles of modern sports psychology Peter Fretwell and Taylor Baldwin Kiland show readers how to apply these principles to their own organizations and create a culture with staying power Originally intending their book to focus on Stockdale s leadership style the authors found that his approach toward completing a mission was to assure that it could be accomplished without him Stockdale they explain had created a mission centric organization not a leader centric organization He had understood that a truly sustainable culture must not be dependent on a single individual At one level this book is a business school case study It is also an examination of how leadership and organizational principles employed in the crucible of a Hanoi prison align with today s sports psychology and modern psychological theories and therapies as well as the training principles used by Olympic athletes and Navy SEALs Any group willing to apply these principles can move their mission forward and create a culture with staying power one that outlives individual members Early Homecoming: A Resource for Early Returned Missionaries, Their Church Leaders, and Family Kristen Reber, 2023-02-02 When a mission doesn t last as long as expected it can be difficult to adjust to the change in plans But every mission matters to our Heavenly Father Based on personal experiences and scholarly research this book helps loved ones leaders and returning missionaries navigate through the mixed emotions of an early release for any reason and press forward with faith The League of Wives Heath Hardage Lee, 2019-04-02 With astonishing verve The League of Wives persisted to speak truth to power to bring their POW MIA husbands home from Vietnam And with astonishing verve Heath Hardage Lee has chronicled their little known story a profile of courage that spotlights 1960s era military wives who forge secret codes with bravery chutzpah and style Honestly I couldn t put it down Beth Macy author of Dopesick and Factory Man Exhilarating and inspiring Elaine Showalter Washington Post The true story of the fierce band of women who battled Washington and Hanoi to bring their husbands home from the jungles of Vietnam On February 12 1973 one hundred and sixteen men who just six years earlier had been high flying Navy and Air Force pilots shuffled limped or were carried off a huge military transport plane at Clark Air Base in the Philippines These American servicemen had endured years of brutal torture kept shackled and starving in solitary confinement in rat infested mosquito laden prisons the worst of which was The Hanoi Hilton Months later the first Vietnam POWs to return home would learn that their rescuers were their wives a group of women that included Jane Denton Sybil Stockdale Louise Mulligan Andrea Rander Phyllis Galanti and Helene Knapp These women who formed The National League of Families would never have called themselves feminists but they had become the POW and MIAs most fervent advocates going to extraordinary lengths to facilitate their husbands freedom and to account for missing military men by relentlessly lobbying government leaders conducting a savvy media campaign conducting covert meetings with antiwar activists and most astonishingly helping to code secret letters to their imprisoned husbands In a page turning work of narrative non fiction Heath Hardage Lee tells the story of these remarkable women for the first time The League of Wives is certain to be on everyone s must read list Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1999 "Aid and Comfort" Henry Mark Holzer,Erika Holzer,2015-08-13 Jane Fonda s visit to Hanoi in July 1972 and her pro North Vietnamese anti American conduct especially her pose with an anti aircraft gun used to shoot down American planes and her propaganda broadcasts directed toward American troops angered many Americans In their eyes she was guilty of treason but she was never charged by the American legal system Instead she has made millions been the recipient of countless awards and remained an honored American icon This work investigates Fonda s activities in North Vietnam and argues that she could have been indicted for treason that there would have been enough evidence to take the case to a jury that she could have been convicted and that a conviction probably would have been upheld on appeal It also considers Fonda s early life and the effect it had on her behavior and beliefs in her later years her audience of American POWs who were forced by the Vietnamese to listen to her broadcasts condemning them as war criminals her arrival in Vietnam and how it was viewed by American servicemen and civilians the crime of treason throughout history and the only Congressional inquiry into her actions which resulted in the government s decision to take no legal action against her Texts of Fonda s radio broadcasts to American servicemen comprise the appendix Return with Honor , The Public Broadcasting Service PBS presents an online supplement to the Return with Honor episode of The American Experience series a production of PBS and the WGBH Educational Foundation The program recounts the story of American prisoners of war in North Vietnam Report of the ...
