Revelation Reason:

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher

Revelation and Reason in Islam A.J. Arberry, 2013-02-01 The Scholastic Problem was the focus of much debate in Islam for some centuries before it became the chief crux of learned discussion in medieval Christianity When originally published in 1957 this volume was the first survey of the subject to appear in English It reviews the conflict within Islam between Revelation and Reason and examines the attempts made by theology philosophy mysticism and authoritarianism to resolve the dilemma Reason's Inquisition Christopher A. Colmo, 2023-08-29 Reasons Inquisition On Doubtful Ground is an exploration in the literature of political philosophy before and after Alfarabi and ranging from Thucydides to Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin These studies most of them previously unpublished open inquiries into theory and practice reason and revelation and the relation between thinkers ancient and modern Readers may be surprised to see the Platonist Alfarabi presented as a critic of Plato's theory in the name of practice while Alfarabi and Hobbes are shown to have a common interest in a theory commensurate with action Strauss Voegelin and Lucien Febvre all explore the problem of reason and revelation in relation to the limits of human knowledge An ambitious study of Shakespeare's Macbeth explores the ambiguity of both nature and knowledge in relation to male and female good and evil present and future The contrast between ancients and moderns is explicit in questions of the modern aspects of Marlowe's Doctor Faustus and of Rousseau's reversal of Plato Kierkegaard and Heidegger bring radical modernity into focus against a Platonic background in the closing essay These diverse essays attempt to follow the thinkers and themes explored in turning a critical gaze upon reason itself Revelation, Reason, and Faith Donald W. Parry, Daniel C. Peterson, Stephen David Ricks, 2002 Reason and Revelation. Systematic Theology Paul Tillich,2012-11-30 A great voyage of discovery into a rich and deep and inclusive vision and understanding of human life in the presence of the mystery of God H Richard Niebuhr author of Christ and Culture This is the first part of Paul Tillich's three volume Systematic Theology one of the most profound statements of the Christian message ever composed and the summation and definitive presentation of the theology of the most influential and creative American theologian of the twentieth century In this path breaking volume Tillich presents the basic method and statement of his system his famous correlation of man's deepest questions with theological answers Here the focus is on the concepts of being and reason Tillich shows how the quest for revelation is integral to reason itself In the same way a description of the inner tensions of being leads to the recognition that the quest for God is implied in finite being Here also Tillich defines his thought in relation to philosophy and the Bible and sets forth his famous doctrine of God as the Ground of Being Thus God is understood not as a being existing beside other beings but as being itself or the power of being in everything God cannot be made into an object religious knowledge is therefore necessarily symbolic Beyond doubt the richest most suggestive and most challenging philosophical theology our day has produced John Herman Randall Jr author of The Making of the Modern Mind

Theology as Repetition Stephen Foster, 2020-01-01 Theology as Repetition revisits and argues for a revival of John Macquarrie's philosophical theology Macquarrie was a key twentieth century theological voice and was considered a foremost interpreter and translator of Martin Heidegger's philosophy He then somehow fell from view Macquarrie developed a new style of theology grounded in a dialectical phenomenology that is a relevant voice in responding to recent trends in theology The development of the book is partly chronological and partly thematic and avoids attempting to be either deductive or inductive in argument but rather reflects Macquarrie's phenomenologically styled new theology Theology as Repetition is set out in two parts The first part situates Macquarrie in relation to thinkers from the radical theology of the 1960s through to the postmodernists of the late twentieth century The second part explores the intersection of key themes in Macquarrie's theology with the thinking of Kant Hegel Heidegger and representative postsecular and postmodern figures including but not limited to Emmanuel Levinas Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion
