SUBUD

One man's extraordinary story, and a message for all mankind.

In REVELATION SUBUD, Emmanuel Elliott seeks to introduce the reader to "a dispensation of grace" that is critically unknown to the vast majority of people in the world today, even though it has been available to men and women everywhere for more than thirty-three years.

This is the first book about Subud to reach the general reader since the early sixties, after the initial flurry of excitement that greeted the arrival in the West of the three little Dutch Indonesians who first received the spiritual contact known as the latihan.

Bapak Muhammad Subud himself died in 1987, but "this amazing grace we call the latihan" flows on: its effectiveness undimmed and undiminished by space or time; its audience unaltered by Bapak's passing.

This story began for Mr. Elliott as a simple and sincere effort to "tell the world" how a very ordinary man, with his full share of fears and weaknesses, was touched by the latihan and transformed by its action. How this 44-year-old Englishman, advertising and marketing consultant, and father of six was guided to find the phenomenon of Subud with the crisis in the Cliff, Our Lady's messages at Fatima and Medjugorje, and the "awakening of the Christ" is very much at the heart of this two-part spiritual adventure story.

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents.
