The Portrait of an Artist as a Pathographer: On Writing Illnesses and Illnesses in Writing Jayjit Sarkar,Jagannath Basu,2021-05-09 Focusing on the various intersections between illness and literature across time and space The Portrait of an Artist as a Pathographer seeks to understand how ontological phenomenological and epistemological experiences of illness have been dealt with and represented in literary writings and literary studies In this volume scholars from across the world have come together to understand how the pathological condition of being ill the sufferers as well as the pathologists dealing with the ill the healers and caregivers have shaped literary works The language of medical science with its jargon and the language of the every day with its emphasis on utility prove equally insufficient and futile in capturing the pain and suffering of illness It is this insufficiency and futility that makes us turn towards the canonical works of Joseph Conrad Samuel Beckett William Carlos Williams Virginia Woolf Kazuo Ishiguro Miroslav Holub as well as the non canonical Ant nio Lobo Antunes Yumemakura Baku Wopko Jensma and Vaslav Nijinsky This volume helps in understanding and capturing the metalanguage of illness while presenting us with the tradition of writing pain In an effort to expand the definition of pathography to include those who are on the other side of pain the essays in this collection aim to portray the above mentioned pathographers as artists turning the anxiety and suffering of illness into an art form Looking deeply into such creative aspects of illness this book also seeks to evoke the possibility of pathography as world literature This book will be of particular interest to undergraduate postgraduate and research students as well as scholars of literature and medical humanities who are interested in the intersections between literary studies and medical science
