Reflexivity in Tristram Shandy James E. Swearingen, 1977-01-01      Reflexivity in Tristram Shandy James E. Swearingen, Laurence Sterne and the Visual Imagination W.B. Gerard, 2016-12-05 The first full length and comprehensive study of the illustrations of Sterne s work this book explores the ability of Sterne s texts to inspire the visual imagination It helps to explain why scores of editions of his fiction have been illustrated some profusely to fulfill the reader s desire as well as the artist s compulsion to visualize Sterne s words Gerard places his subject in a clear and innovative theoretical framework which opens the field to general word and image studies The author begins by examining the distinct varieties of pictorialism in Sterne s texts The remainder of the study takes into account three remarkable series of illustrations representing Trim reading the sermon didactic sentimentalism in A Sentimental Journey and Henry Mackenzie s Man of Feeling and the many and diverse portrayals of poor Maria to demonstrate the ways in which culture projects these texts differently through the various artists

The Age of Reasons Wendy Motooka, 2013-05-13 Wendy Motooka contends that the Age of Reason was actually an Age of Reasons Joining imaginative literature moral philosophy and the emerging discourse of the new science she seeks to historicise the meaning of eighteenth century reason and its supposed opposites quixotism and sentimentalism Reading novels by the Fieldings Lennox and Sterne alongside the works of Adam Smith Motooka argues that the legacy of sentimentalism is the social sciences This book raises our understanding of eighteenth century British culture and its relation to the rational culture of economics that is growing ever more prevasive today

Laurence Sterne in Modernism and Postmodernism David Pierce, Peter Jan de Voogd, 1996 Laurence Sterne s Tristram Shandy is the most wayward and in some respects the most powerful critique of Locke s theory of knowledge while his interest in the gulf between biological and clock time makes him a contemporary of Proust and Bergson In obscuring the fine line between autobiography and fiction Sterne belongs to the generation of modern writers that includes Joyce and Nabokov In his deliberate refusal to construct a goahead plot Sterne commends himself to contemporary narratologists In his concern with personal identity he anticipates the Derridean stress on trace In his promiscuous borrowings from past authors he offers himself as a suitably perverse model for the school of postmodern theory In his attention to matters of typography and to a visual language he provides a running commentary on almost every aspect of the relationship between word and image Himself influenced by Rabelais Montaigne Cervantes and Burton Sterne has influenced writers as diverse as Cabrera Infante Kundera M rquez Rushdie and Beckett And James Joyce These influences are traced here by sixteen scholars from Europe and the USA proof if any were needed that Laurence Sterne today is as rewardingly puzzling as he was in his own century

Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al, 2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the authors output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the authors profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The books uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanity's hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literatures lofty missive is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched
