Meet Matisse:

Meet Matisse Jean-Vincent Sénac, 2014-11-11 This insightful exploration of Henri Matisse and his cut out artwork provides children with a genuine understanding of the artist's signature style. French illustrator Jean Vincent Sénac's mixed media spreads pop with color just like the art they feature. Meet Matisse is the first in Tate Publishing's Meet the Artist series published to tie in with the Matisse cutouts exhibition at Tate Modern and The Museum of Modern Art in 2014. Meet Matisse Nelly Munthe, 1983 An introduction to the cut outs of Henri Matisse who concentrated on this technique of artistic expression in his final years. Instructions are included for several of Matisse's artistic techniques. Henri Matisse Patricia Geis, 2014-11-04 Henri Matisse Meet the Artist takes young readers of all ages on a colorful interactive journey through the work of the beloved French painter and sculptor. Featuring flaps, cutouts, and pull tabs, this engaging pop up book covers Matisse's entire artistic career including his paintings, drawings, sculptures, and paper cutouts, as well as the story of his lifelong friendship with Pablo Picasso. With activities that encourage readers to explore the artist's signature methods, this hands-on introduction will inspire budding artists from eight to eighty. Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career, Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors. Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross-currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media. This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity. By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter, print maker, and reader in the field of book production, this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia. Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self-placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath. Through a combination of archival resources, art history, and literary criticism, this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians, literary scholars, and researchers in book history and modernism. A.S. Byatt Celia M. Wallhead, 2007 A.S. Byatt has always alternated novels with shorter fiction. Different literary and linguistic models are applied here to analyse how she guides her readers' understanding of vital complex issues within her perennial themes of life, creativity, and death. This study focuses on certain stories from the six volumes of short fiction she has produced to date. The two novellas of Angels and Insects are scrutinised for their intertextuality, while stories from Sugar and Other Stories, The Matisse Stories, The Djinn in the Nightingale's Eye, Elementals, Stories of Fire and Ice, and Little Black Book of Stories are novel discussions of creativity and related gender issues. Picasso and Apollinaire Peter Read, 2008-04-02 Monografie over de vriendschap en creatieve interactie tussen de Spaans-Franse kunstenaar 1881-1973 en de Franse dichter 1880-1918.
