Bureau of American Ethnology, 1910 The Indian's Friend, 1913 The Sunset, 1923 Do You See What I Mean? Brenda Farnell, 2009-06-01 Plains Indian Sign Talk PST a complex system of hand signs once served as the lingua franca among many Native American tribes of the Great Plains who spoke very different languages Although some researchers thought it had disappeared following the establishment of reservations and the widespread adoption of English Brenda Farnell discovered that PST is still an integral component of the storytelling tradition in contemporary Assiniboine Nakota culture Farnell s research challenges the dominant European American view of language as a matter of words only In

Nakota language practices she asserts words and gestures are equal partners in the creation of meaning Drawing on Nakota narratives videotaped during field research at the Fort Belknap reservation in northern Montana she uses the movement script Labanotation to create texts of the movement content of these performances The first and only ethnographic study of contemporary uses of PST Do You See What I Mean draws on important developments in the study of language and culture to provide an action centered analysis of spoken and gestural discourse It offers a theoretical approach to language and the body that transcends the current intellectualist versus phenomenological impasse in social and linguistic theory
