Three Women in Dark Times Sylvie Courtine-Denamy, 2000 Three women all philosophers all of Jewish descent provide a human face for a decade of crisis in this powerful and moving book The dark years when the Nazis rose to power are here seen through the lives of Edith Stein a disciple of Husserl and author of La science et la croix who died in Auschwitz in 1942 Hannah Arendt pupil of Heidegger and Jaspers and author of Eichmann in Jerusalem who unhesitatingly responded to Hitler by making a personal commitment to Zionism and Simone Weil a student of Alain and author of La pesanteur et la grace Following her subjects from 1933 to 1943 Sylvie Courtine Denamy recounts how these three great philosophers of the twentieth century endeavored with profound moral commitment to address the issues confronting them Condemned to exile they not only sought to understand a horrible reality but also attempted to make peace with it To do so Edith Stein and Simone Weil encouraged a stoic acceptance of necessity while Hannah Arendt argued for the capacity for renewal and the need to fight against the banality of evil Courtine Denamy also describes how as a student each woman caught the eye of her famous male teacher yet dared to criticize and go beyond him She explores each one's sense of her femininity her position on the woman question and her relation to her Jewishness All three the author writes are compelling figures who move us with their fierce desire to understand a world out of joint reconcile it with itself and despite everything love it

Marsoobian, 2018-02-22 Criticism and Compassion: The Ethics and Politics of Claudia Card offers a unique perspective on the range of issues explored by Card during her distinguished career in philosophy Investigates her work as an early leader in the development of feminist philosophy challenging many preconceptions about the society's norms regarding gender marriage and motherhood Crossing many disciplinary boundaries her concept of social death has come to play a significant role in multidisciplinary field of genocide studies This volume combines many of Claudia Card s important essays with recently commissioned essays by leading philosophers whose work has been influenced by Card The full scope of Card s philosophy is presented here both in her own words and those of her critics and interpreters The Prostitution of Sexuality Kathleen Barry,1995 Barry sociology Pennsylvania State U considers sexual exploitation a political condition and thus the foundation of women s subordination and the base from which discrimination against women is constructed She argues for the need to integrate the struggle against sexual exploitation in prostitution into broader feminist struggles and to place it as one of several connected issues in the forefront of the feminist agenda Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
