Lectures on the Psychology of Women Joan C. Chrisler, Carla Golden, Patricia D. Rozee, 2012-12-21 Designed as a supplement in courses on the psychology of women the psychology of gender and gender role development this collection of short accessible lectures written by experienced and committed teachers spotlights topics that often receive less in depth coverage in core textbooks While topically arranged to align with standard texts each favorite lecture stands alone essentially instructors can assign the readings to meet their own course needs Among the student friendly features are the informal writing styles with each author speaking directly to the reader questions and ideas that encourage critical thinking and biographical statements and photographs that introduce each contributor The authors represent a variety of personal backgrounds and experiences but they believe in the importance of gender equality To that point the book addresses common feminist themes including the social construction of gender power the value of diversity inclusive language the global status of women and the value of social activism

Encyclopedia of Feminist Theories Lorraine Code, 2002-06-01 The path breaking Encyclopedia of Feminist Theories is an accessible multidisciplinary insight into the complex field of feminist thought The Encyclopedia contains over 500 authoritative entries commissioned from an international team of contributors and includes clear concise and provocative explanations of key themes and ideas Each entry contains cross references and a bibliographic guide to further reading over 50 biographical entries provide readers with a sense of how the theories they encounter have developed out of the lives and situations of their authors

Women Ageing Miriam Bernard, Val Harding Davies, Linda Machin, Judith Phillips, 2005-06-22 Women Ageing provides a better understanding of what ageing is like for women and challenges the myths which have grown up around the ageing process Blending the scholarly the personal and the political it reveals the range of strategies and identities women adopt to manage the transitions of the second half of the life course In doing so it uncovers not only the commonalities and the similarities between mid life and older women but also some of the variation and diversity relating to ethnicity and race class disability and sexual orientation Women Ageing makes the ordinary lives of ordinary women as in this instance they grow older more visible Its findings have important implications for policy and practice All those studying or working with older people will find it an illuminating text The Menopause Transition Among Qu'ebec Women Marie-Claude Yolaine Paquette,1999 A Certain Age Susan Feldman,2020-08-26 Older women run their own businesses Older women go to aerobics classes Older women fall in love In fact older women have active lives and make a major contribution to the community despite the the public assumption that they are past their use by date A Certain Age explores the public and private worlds of older women Challenging the emphasis on declining health in other studies of ageing it looks at the interactions between older women and family friends and the community as well as their work and leisure activities The authors discuss the factors that are important in older woman s lives such as home menopause fitness learning widowhood and intimacy They show that many older women maintain good health and an independent lifestyle while others experience barriers that prevent them from continuing to be active members of their community A Certain Age is valuable reading for anyone who works with older people develops programs or policies for older people or is interested in the experience of growing older The Unofficial Guide to Coping With Menopause Donna Howell,1999-05-26 This guide provides the inside information that many doctors aren t disclosing but that the savvy woman demands Topics include estrogen replacement therapy osteoporosis heart disease and the benefits of exercise and diet The Evolution of the Aging Self Klaus Warner Schaie,Jon Hendricks,2000 The authors examine age related changes and their impact upon the concept of self sense of well being life satisfaction perceived quality of life Each chapter is followed by two expert commentaries For teachers researchers and graduates interested in the sociology and psychology of ageing Pakistan Journal of Women's Studies ,2006 Premature Menopause Dani Singer,Myra Hunter,2000-02-08 This work deals with questions about premature menopause while challenging some of the myths and stereotypes surrounding it Taking a biopsychosocial approach the editors bring together experts from a range of disciplines including endocrinology gynecology general practice nursing psychotherapy complementary medicine and clinical psychology as well as hearing from women themselves Common Experiences and Changing Meanings Judith Anne Houck,1998 Reinterpreting the American Experience Christine Bold,1992 Reinterpreting the Unspeakable John Money,1994 See Homosexual Homosexuality and Lesbian in the index Embodying Bioethics International Association of Bioethics,1999-01-14 Direct outcome of a meeting sponsored by the International Association of Bioethics in 1992 Preface All Over Elena Ruth Marshall,2007 A Guide to Humanistic Studies in Aging Thomas R. Cole,Ruth E. Ray,Robert Kastenbaum,2010-06 Aging has long been of interest to scholars and practitioners in a vast array of academic fields and professions Thomas R Cole Ruth E Ray and Robert Kastenbaum have brought together leaders from a variety of academic realms to explore how aging is depicted in the modern era and the effect of these portrayals on individuals and society

The Time of Our Lives Marcia Tucker, Anne Ellegood, 1999 The fastest growing age group in America is those over 65 and accordingly there has been a recent upsurge in interest into how aging is perceived and represented The Time of Our Lives considers the depiction of aging within visual media How do stereo types in the conceptualization of age particularly the invisibility and infantilization of the elderly affect us The book also explores how medical research and new technologies are changing our ideas about aging longevity and reproduction and the cultural quest for the fountain of youth as evidenced through increasingly prevalent anti aging products and cosmetic surgery Australian Feminism Barbara Caine, Moira Gatens, 1998 The distinctive features of Australian feminism including diversity engagement with the state openness to new ideas and connections with ideas and developments overseas are fully explored in this major new encyclopedic reference book Manual of Gerontologic Nursing Charlotte Eliopoulos, 1999 A practical accessible reference now brought completely up to date This bestselling manual covers all problems related to gerontologic nursing care within the nursing diagnosis framework
