comprehensive reference book brings together all the equipment issued to American soldiers in the European Theater of Operations 1943-45. Each item is presented with its catalog numbers described in detail and fully depicted in photographs including close ups of the labels to aid identification of items. Graphics and diagrams offer additional information and context. There are chapters on everything from uniform insignia and small arms issued to the individual through crew served weapons, rations, tents to sports and recreation equipment. There is full coverage of the specialist items issued to Airborne, Armored and Mountain troops, engineers, signallers, Military Police, medics, chaplains, and female personnel. From the chewing gum included in K rations through to artillery laying equipment, mess trays to portable altars and field harmoniums, this photographic reference gives a unique insight into the world of the U.S. Army in World War II. As a complete catalog with high quality photographs, this book is invaluable to both family historians researching grandpa's kit found in the attic and to collectors in their quest to find authentic items among the reproductions that flood the modern market.
