Collapse and Transformation Guy D. Middleton, 2020-04-09 The years c 1250 to 1150 BC in Greece and the Aegean are often characterised as a time of crisis and collapse A critical period in the long history of the region and its people and culture they witnessed the end of the Mycenaean kingdoms with their palaces and Linear B records and through the Postpalatial period the transition into the Early Iron Age But on closer examination it has become increasingly clear that the period as a whole across the region defies simple characterisation there was success and splendour resilience and continuity and novelty and innovation actively driven by the people of these lands through this transformative century The story of the Aegean at this time has frequently been incorporated into narratives focused on the wider eastern Mediterranean and most infamously the Sea Peoples of the Egyptian texts In twenty five chapters written by 25 specialists Collapse and Transformation instead offers a tight focus on the Aegean itself providing an up to date picture of the archaeology before and after the collapse of c 1200 BC It will be essential reading for students and scholars of the Aegean and eastern Mediterranean regions as well as providing data and a range of interpretations to those studying collapse and resilience more widely and engaging in comparative studies Introductory chapters discuss notions of collapse and provide overviews of the Minoan and Mycenaean collapses These are followed by twelve chapters which review the evidence from the major regions of the Aegean including the Argolid Messenia and Boeotia Crete and the Aegean islands Six chapters then address key themes the economy funerary practices the Mycenaean pottery of the mainland and the wider Aegean and eastern Mediterranean region religion and the extent to which later Greek myth can be drawn upon as evidence or taken to reflect any historical reality The final four chapters provide a wider context for the Aegean story surveying the eastern Mediterranean including Cyprus and the Levant and the themes of subsistence and warfare

The Internationalization of Palace Wars Yves Dezalay, Bryant G. Garth, 2010-02-15
How does globalization work Focusing on Latin America Yves Dezalay and Bryant G Garth show that exports of expertise and ideals from the United States to Argentina Brazil Chile and Mexico have played a crucial role in transforming their state forms and economies since World War II Based on more than 300 extensive interviews with major players in governments foundations law firms universities and think tanks Dezalay and Garth examine both the production of northern exports such as neoliberal economics and international human rights law and the ways they are received south of the United States They find that the content of what is exported and how it fares are profoundly shaped by domestic struggles for power and influence palace wars in the nations involved For instance challenges to the eastern intellectual establishment influenced the Reagan era export of University of Chicago style neoliberal economics to Chile where it enjoyed a warm reception from Pinochet and his allies because they could use it to discredit the previous regime Innovative and sophisticated The Internationalization of Palace Wars offers much needed concrete information about the transnational processes that shape our world
