Criminality and Business Strategy John Zinkin, Chris Bennett, 2022-10-03 Criminality and Business Strategy Similarities and Differences explores what can be learned from criminal organizations on four continents based on comparisons of their historical and cultural origins chosen governance and power structures and business models It discusses how these contexts determined their applications of the principles and practice of effective but amoral leadership and whether these lessons can be applied to legitimate business enterprises In this book John Zinkin and Chris Bennett argue that defining a crime is a contested issue and that criminality can be viewed as a spectrum comprising a range of different types of crimes the harms caused and the variety of punishments involved They discuss the critical role of the state in determining where criminality is perceived to sit on the crime continuum The authors delve into how the state and organized crime are natural competitors and how organized crime and legitimate businesses are subject to many of the same internal and external strategic considerations They contend that the resulting similarities between criminality in organized criminal organizations and legitimate businesses are greater than the differences and that the differences are only in degree and not in kind This thought provoking study of criminality will be of immense interest to professionals coaches consultants and academics interested in the techniques and ethics of leadership The book is in effect the result of an intellectual journey of the authors from the ideas presented in their earlier book The Principles and Practice of Effective Leadership to the issues in this book discussing important difficult and contested subjects The journey continues in their third book The Challenge in Leading Ethical and Successful Organizations

African American Political Thought Melvin L. Rogers, Jack Turner, 2024-05-31 African American Political Thought offers an unprecedented philosophical history of thinkers from the African American community and African diaspora who have addressed the central issues of political life democracy race violence liberation solidarity and mass political action Melvin L Rogers and Jack Turner have brought together leading scholars to reflect on individual intellectuals from the past four centuries developing their list with an expansive approach to political expression The collected essays consider such figures as Martin Delany Ida B Wells W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Toni Morrison and Audre Lorde whose works are addressed by scholars such as Farah Jasmine Griffin Robert Gooding Williams Michael Dawson Nick Bromell Neil Roberts and Lawrie Balfour While African American political thought is inextricable from the historical movement of American political thought this volume stresses the individuality of Black thinkers the transnational and diasporic consciousness and how individual speakers and writers draw on various traditions simultaneously to broaden our conception of African American political ideas This landmark volume gives us the opportunity to tap into the myriad and nuanced political theories central to Black life In doing so African American Political Thought A Collected History transforms how we understand the past and future of political thinking in the West
