American Newspaper Publishers Association V. National Labor Relations Board ,1951      Collective Bargaining in the Private Sector Paul F. Clark,John Thomas Delaney,Ann Christine Frost,2002 Private sector collective bargaining in the United States is under siege Many factors have contributed to this situation including the development of global markets a continuing antipathy toward unions by managers and the declining effectiveness of strikes This volume examines collective bargaining in eight major industries airlines automobile manufacturing health care hotels and casinos newspaper publishing professional sports telecommunications and trucking to gain insight into the challenges the parties face and how they have responded to those challenges The authors suggest that collective bargaining is evolving differently across the industries studied While the forces constraining bargaining have not abated changes in the global environment including new security considerations may create opportunities for unions Across the industries one thing is clear private sector collective bargaining is rapidly changing
