Report of the Practice Analysis Task Force, September 1983, 1984      Practice Analysis of Certified Public Accountants in Public Accounting, 1991      Public Policy and the Practice and Problems of Accounting Ahmed Riahi-Belkaoui, 1985
Belkaoui offers a critical analysis of accounting and the societal problems the profession faces The roles played by accountants and auditors the standard setting and oversight processes the history function and current status of the discipline itself all are treated systematically and with candor Clarifying our understanding of what is wrong and what is right with accounting in the context of public interest the author probes questions of public policy and shows where correction standardization and legislation are needed He reviews solutions advanced by the courts the Internal Revenue Service the Securities and Exchange Commission and researchers in other fields then offers his own constructive suggestions

Practice Makes Practice Deborah P. Britzman, 2012-02-16 This revised edition of the classic text explores the complexity of what learning to teach means While the research on teacher education continues to proliferate Practice Makes Practice remains the discipline's indispensable classic text Drawing upon critical ethnography this new edition of this best selling book asks the question what does learning to teach do and mean to newcomers and to those who surround them Deborah P Britzman writes poignantly of the struggle for significance and the contradictory realities of secondary teaching She offers a theory of difficulty in learning and explores why the blaming of individuals is so prevalent in education The completely revised introduction presents a refined and further developed theoretical framework and analysis discussing why we might return to a study of teaching and learning Also included in this updated edition is an insightful hidden chapter that comments on the methodology of the study and some of the dilemmas the author continues to face as her own thinking develops around the issues of representing teaching and learning for those just entering the profession Deborah P Britzman is Distinguished Research Professor at York University She is the author of many books including The Very Thought of Education Psychoanalysis and the Impossible Professions After Education Anna Freud Melanie Klein and Psychoanalytic Histories of Learning and Lost Subjects Contested Objects Toward a Psychoanalytic Inquiry of Learning all published by SUNY Press
