Why Smart People Make Bad Decisions Kimani Upshur M.Ed, Even highly intelligent people make poor decisions History is full of brilliant individuals who made costly mistakes leaders who misjudged risks investors who ignored warning signs and professionals who overlooked better opportunities Why does this happen The answer is that intelligence alone does not guarantee good judgment Hidden forces shape our thinking every day Cognitive biases distort our perception Incentives influence our behavior Systems create outcomes that are often difficult to predict And many decisions involve tradeoffs that people fail to fully consider Understanding these forces can dramatically improve how we think and how we make choices In Why Smart People Make Bad Decisions educator and author

Kimani Upshur M Ed explains the hidden factors that influence human judgment and decision making Using clear explanations and practical examples this book introduces several powerful ideas from decision science and behavioral economics Inside this book you will learn Why intelligence does not automatically lead to good decisions How cognitive biases influence everyday thinking Why incentives shape behavior more than logic How opportunity cost and tradeoffs affect choices Why uncertainty makes decision making difficult How clearer thinking can lead to better outcomes This book is part of The Made Simple Framework a growing library designed to explain important ideas about thinking decision making systems technology and human behavior in clear and practical language If you enjoy this book you may also enjoy other titles in the series including Thinking Made Simple Decision Making Made Simple Cognitive Biases Made Simple Mental Models Made Simple Systems Thinking Made Simple Clear thinking is one of the most valuable skills in the modern world Understanding why smart people make bad decisions is the first step toward making better ones SERIOUSLY!?! I'm Over All of This Kimani Upshur M.Ed,M.K. Upshur ,2026-03-24 Somewhere along the way everything started feeling like too much Too many decisions Too much pressure Too much noise And now You re just over it This book is not about pushing harder It s about understanding why everything feels draining in the first place and how to reset without burning out even more Inside you ll learn Why modern life feels overwhelming even when you re doing everything right How mental overload slowly drains your energy and focus The hidden patterns keeping you stuck frustrated and exhausted Why trying harder is making things worse How to reset your mind simplify your life and regain control This is a clear practical guide for anyone who feels tired of everything and ready for something different No hype No fluff Just clarity Start where you are Reset what matters Move forward
