Making It In America:

Making It in America Rachel Slade, 2024-01-09 A moving and eye opening look at the story of manufacturing in America whether it can ever successfully return to our shores and why our nation depends on it told through the experience of one young couple in Maine as they attempt to rebuild a lost industry ethically From the best selling author of Into the Raging Sea Ben Waxman spent a decade organizing workers in Pennsylvania Ohio and Wisconsin fighting for men and women at a time when national support for unions had sunk to an all time low Frustrated with the state of the world he lands back in his hometown of Portland Maine to rethink his life There he meets Whitney Reynolds a restless bartender eager for a challenge In each other they see a better future a version of the American dream they can build together Ben and Whitney set out to prove that union made all American sourced apparel manufacturing is possible in the twenty first century Their quest takes us across the nation and across time from the cotton fields of Mississippi to the hollowed out garment district in New York City to a family owned zipper company in Los Angeles to the enormous knit and dye houses in North Carolina While battling anti immigrant hostility trade wars and a global pandemic they grapple with the true meaning of made in USA in our globalized world Making It in America offers a fascinating new take on free trade economics and manufacturing history Woven through the Waxmans journey is the essential story of textiles and their critical role in shaping capitalism It was the demand for cheap cloth that sparked the industrial revolution It was the brutal conditions in New England s textile mills that first drove workers to organize Making It in America is a deeply personal account of how individual choices shape a nation Each touchpoint casts a rare compassionate look at what came before where we are now and where we re going through the people places and ecologies that produce the fabric of our lives Making America Safer United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs, 2005 The Deplorables' Guide to Making America Great Again Todd Starnes, 2017-02-07 Winning was just the beginning Change may start at the White House but it finishes at your house In The Deplorables Guide to Making America Great Again Fox News Radio host Todd Starnes reports from the front lines of the culture war in America and provides insights on what you can do to bring about real and lasting change in our nation We ve told Washington enough is enough and we want to change the course of the country President Obama called us bitter Hillary Clinton called us irredeemable The mainstream media called us backwater bigots We were mocked by Hollywood and dismissed by academics We were marginalized by the media bullied and belittled by sex and gender revolutionaries With the election of Donald Trump the American people have spoken Making America's Streets Safer United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Crime and Drugs, 2002 Making America, Making American Literature A. Robert Lee, W. M. Verhoeven, 1996 If 1776 heralds America s Birth of the Nation so too it witnesses the rise of a matching and overlapping American Literature For between the 1770s and the 1820s American writing moves on from the ancestral Puritanism of New England and Virginia though not as yet into the American Renaissance so strikingly called for by

Ralph Waldo Emerson Even so the concourse of voices which arise in this period that is between and including Benjamin Franklin and James Fenimore Cooper mark both a key transitional literary generation and yet one all too easily passed over in its own imaginative right This collection of fifteen specially commissioned essays seeks to establish new bearings a revision of one of the key political and literary eras in American culture Not only are Franklin and Cooper themselves carefully re evaluated in the making of America s new literary republic but figures like Charles Brockden Brown Washington Irving Philip Freneau William Cullen Bryant the other Alexander Hamilton and the playwrights Royall Tyler and William Dunlop Other essays take a more inclusive perspective whether American epistolary fiction a first generation of American women authored fiction the public discourse of The Federalist Papers the rise of the American periodical or the founding African American generation of Phillis Wheatley What unites all the essays is the common assumption that the making of America was as much a matter of creating its national literature as the making of American literature was a matter of shaping a national identity

Making America's Budget Policy Joseph J. Minarik,1990 This collection of articles traces the evolution over the 1980s of budget policy and tax reform by an architect of the Bradley tax reform bill The articles present a chronological analysis of tax changes and the heated controversy over budget policy and the deficit It concludes with an analysis of what the future holds The author currently staff director of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress has the perspective of a fiscal expert with many years on the Washington scene
