Using Wordless Picture Books Katharyn E. Tuten-Puckett, Virginia H. Richey,1993 This companion guide to Wordless Almost Wordless Picture Books offers hundreds of ideas for using wordless picture books in the classroom or library A special author section focuses on ten major authors another section focuses on recent titles with annotations and bibliographies Whole Music Lois Blackburn,1998 Whole Music offers a fervent message to elementary teachers that music can be integrated into their classrooms and that it can be done applying the principles of whole language Music is fertile ground for creating classroom activities based on the individual whole child home community and other environmental and cultural influences And music is best explored using the child s whole body rather than just eyes ears and writing hand Blackburn writes this book from a unique position as a musician with a profound interest in the psycholinguistics of reading Her goal is to propose whole music as an instrument to transform music instruction in the way that whole language has transformed other subject areas Along with descriptions of whole music her book includes examples and practical activities Many books have been designed as compendiums of activities and exhaustive collections of children s songs and games Whole Music instead introduces a point of view The illustrative materials are intended as examples of the whole music process patterns from which teachers may in turn create their own songs and activities There is something in this book to guide nearly every teacher in exploring music at some level and in some context For regular classroom teachers these adventures may be used as focused lessons as enrichment for other subject area units or as fillers for the nightmare times when the lesson plan runs out For music educators the materials may be used individually to examine specific skills or as a complete developmental sequence and curriculum outline in the order presented in the text Music, Books on Music, and Sound Recordings Library of Congress,1987 Parent Tricks-of-the-trade Kathleen Touw,1988-02-15 Best Books for Junior High Readers John T.
