Making of a Man in America Earl Groomer,2003-08-01 Making of a Man in America Earl Groomer, Jr.,2001-02
Sent to England on a secret mission for the brotherhood of Ireland Shelly a strong and fierce woman is accused of being a witch Three men are sent to track her down Derrick is the leader in the chase and the three discover there is more to the witch hunt than they suppose An adventure lies in Ireland for Derrick as he leaves his friends and family behind and sets out to follow Shelly as she fights for the freedom of Ireland

Critical Race Theory and the American Justice System Paul Zwier,2023-02-27 When a trial lawyer stands before a jury to argue a case about a Black victim killed by a white person how should the lawyer best argue the case Critical race theorists CRTs are pessimistic that a white jury can set aside its own racism in judging the Black victims actions and are skeptical of a jury s ability to fairly judge a white actor s motives Before the George Floyd and Ahmaud Arbery killings there was strong evidence The Innocence Project that the CRTs were right After all the prosecutors in the Ahmaud Arbery case were so convinced that a white jury in a Georgia county would not convict white vigilantes that they initially didn t even charge the killers with a crime However then back to back in both cases prosecutors prosecuted and the jury returned guilty verdicts They convicted Derrick Chauvin of murder They convicted Travis and Gregory McMichael and Roddie William Bryant of murder This book examines the how and why of these verdicts and asks whether they hold lessons vital to withstanding CRT challenges to the American justice system

The ^ARule of Recognition and the U.S. Constitution Matthew Adler,Kenneth Einar Himma,2009-07-20 The Rule of Recognition and the U S Constitution is a volume of original essays that discuss the applicability of Hart s rule of recognition model of a legal system to U S constitutional law The contributors are leading scholars in analytical jurisprudence and constitutional theory including Matthew Adler Larry Alexander Mitchell Berman Michael Dorf Kent Greenawalt Richard Fallon Michael Green Kenneth Einar Himma Stephen Perry Frederick Schauer Scott Shapiro Jeremy Waldron and Wil Waluchow The volume makes a contribution both in jurisprudence using the U S as a test case that highlights the strengths and limitations of the rule of recognition model and in constitutional theory by showing how the model can illuminate topics such as the role of the Supreme Court the constitutional status of precedent the legitimacy of unwritten sources of constitutional law the choice of methods for interpreting the text of the Constitution and popular constitutionalism

Trayvon Martin, Race, and American Justice Kenneth J. Fasching-Varner,Rema E. Reynolds,Katrice A. Albert,Lori L. Martin,2014-11-04 Trayvon Martin Race and American Justice Writing Wrong is the first comprehensive text to analyze not only the killing of Trayvon Martin but the implications of this event for the state of race in the United States Bringing together contributions from a variety of disciplines and approaches this text pushes readers to answer the question In the wake of the killing of Trayvon Martin and the acquittal of his killer how post racial can we claim to be This collection of short and powerful chapters is at times angering and at times hopeful but always thought provoking critical and poignant This interdisciplinary volume is well suited for undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in sociology social work law communication and education This book can also be read by anyone interested in social justice and equity through the lens of race in the 21st century This text is an invitation to a rebellion the inevitable insurgency of Black youth brewing right now across the land as the descendants of enslaved workers step up to exercise their agency and at that moment become agents of liberty and actors in history William Ayers Distinguished Professor from the University of Illinois Chicago the authors offer incisive and vivid examinations of the contours of white supremacy today inviting readers into a much needed discussion of moral questions surrounding the very foundation life in the U S Christine Sleeter Professor Emerita California State University Monterey

Trayvon Martin Race and American Justice Writing Wrong is a powerful assemblage of voices that speak to the salience of race gender and their intersection Collectively the authors provide us with poignant reminders of the multiple forces that rail against Black males in our society Each chapter grabs our attention ignites our activism and encourages us to remain steadfast in the struggle toward a true democracy for all Americans a society where Black males lives are valued and they no longer face daily threats to their humanity Yolanda Sealey Ruiz Assistant Professor Teachers College Columbia University

While motivated by Trayvon Martin s unfortunate and tragic death this impressive collection serves as a one of a kind tribute to Martin and will help to keep his legacy alive The contributions are evocative and accessible and while the focus is on Martin the contributions also call attention to mundane severe and systemic racial wrongdoings biases in existing research colorblindness and white privilege and erasures of history and failures of memory Tony E Adams Professor at Northeastern Illinois University and NCA book award winner The editors and contributors have taken a tragic topic and presented it in a way that is engaging effective and surprisingly optimistic There is a style for everyone here making it a great text for multiple audiences and classrooms A truly superb addition to any classroom and a great read for those interested in social justice in today s world U Melissa Anyiwo Professor and Coordinator of African American Studies Curry College

Trayvon Martin Race and American Justice Writing Wrong is true to its title it focuses attention through critical writing on the pernicious pervasive and persistent violence waged against black men especially black male youth in American society Using the still unpunished pre meditated murder of Trayvon Martin as a highly emblematic example of this violence the editors and authors use carefully crafted and sequenced poetry and prose to write truth to power about the economic political social and cultural factors that produce and reproduce systemic aggression toward especially men and boys of African descent but also toward members of other societally minoritized groups The breadth and depth of the contributions included in Trayvon Martin Race and American Justice Writing Wrong makes it a particularly valuable resource for faculty and students engaged in teaching learning research service and activism related to issues of race racism blackness whiteness class caste classism language dialect literacy linguistic geographic and national origin immigration status sex gender gender identity and expression masculinity sexual orientation size appearance and more broadly equity equality and social justice Chapters reflect the thoughtful insight and advanced expertise of their authors who bring increased levels of complexity to historical and contemporary dialogue discussion and debate about especially race and racism in the United States The editors selection of contributors and organization of contributions balances pain truth telling with hope and possibility for a more just future In sum Trayvon Martin Race and American Justice Writing Wrong reciprocally links theory and practice relating to issues of power privilege oppression discrimination and liberation Christine Clark Professor Senior Scholar in Multicultural Education and Founding Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion University of Nevada Las Vegas Chapters in this timely and probing book stare straight at a difficult incident refuse to ignore injustice but call on a higher purpose of great academic criticism in writing the wrong Here the wrong is the corrosive and sometimes lethal bias by many in power toward black males who are too often seen as dangerous and disposable in American society The killing of Trayvon Martin and the subsequent acquittal of his killer George Zimmerman are examined by minds informed by reflection on theory and history We hear of conversations that black parents particularly mothers who often felt on trial themselves had with their teenage sons Some of these endangered sons were outraged by the act and verdict while some others were indifferent Chapters are devoted to the incident the trial and aftermath and to the future of the struggle against racial injustice Through what T J Yosso calls resistant capital we are urged to continue to interrogate a judicial system that prosecutes not only black males but their parents and families There is much to learn here about the current state of social justice and the way we live with and among each other In both prose and poetry these impassioned authors strive to write the wrong of Trayvon Martin and many others like him I recommend this volume highly and will use it in my graduate classes AG Rud Distinguished Professor College of Education Washington State University Kenneth J Fasching Varner PhD is Shirley B Barton Endowed Assistant Professor of Foundations and Elementary Education and holds a Ph D in Language Literacy and Culture from The Ohio State University Rema E Reynolds PhD is Assistant Professor of Education Policy Organization and Leadership and holds a doctorate in Education from the University of California Los Angeles Katrice A Albert PhD is Vice President for Equity and Diversity and holds a doctorate in Counseling from Auburn University Lori L Martin PhD is Associate Professor of Sociology and African American Studies and holds a doctorate in Sociology from University of Albany State University of New York
